FREE*DOM POPULAR

●Well under way after its second week, the Free* North Festival has an average participation of 150 to 200 people per day. The busiest studio has proved to be Stoneware and Pottery, headed by Jerry Ashby and located in the basement of "B" House, Men's Residence.

The Drama group, headed by Frank Serio from Toronto, is very popular with its study of 'live theatre' and the Comedia de l'Arte created and enacted daily by the participants.

The Sculpture studio, headed by Peter Lenardon, is progressing through a profusion of dust, salt, stones, and plaster to many interesting, creative art forms.

The painting and drawing studio is presenting lectures on Colour, Theory and Composition. Hours and arrangements for special topics can be arranged through the instructors, Steve Elkerton and Mike LaBelle.

The Craft Studio, in the charge of Sharlene Ticknor, has finished its Macrome session and begins tie dye on Monday, July 20.

The Print Studio is presently working on Silk-screen techniques with several participants involved with organizing and illustrating an animated cartoon series.

Free film features are presented twice each week day in Room 1029, Main Building, at 2 and 8 p.m. A schedule is posted on the main bulletin board, now located in the Great Hall.

The music workshop, headed by Bill Gabourie from Peterborough, is established and offers elementary guitar lessons, organ and piano theory, composition and arrangement theory as well as the opportunity for advanced musicians to 'jam' with each other. Arrangements can be made through Bill Gabourie for individual lessons and 'group' sessions.

The co-ordinators are looking forward as more and more people come in every day, both to look and to participate. Parents are invited to attend the same classes as their children. The studio capacity is approximately half-filled so there is room for many more people. Inquire in the Gallery, University extension 562. The Festival hours are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday with hour lunch and supper breaks. On Friday the Festival studios close at 6 p.m.

It is FREE*! It is our north! It is our festival!
