

BRITISH, FRENCH . . . and others

A community-university conference to discuss the ramifications of the Official Languages Act on minority linguistic-cultural groups will be held at Lakehead University from Friday, Nov. 21, to Sunday, Nov. 23.

Entitled "British, French and Others" the conference will include delegates from the Lakehead and Northwestern Ontario. In addition, observers from both the federal and provincial governments will attend the discussions.

The conference will be the first of its kind in this city. Sponsors include the Lakehead University Ukrainian Club, the Alma Mater Society, the University and the Citizenship Branch of the Department of the Secretary of State.

On Saturday, November 20, a panel representing six ethnic groups from the Lakehead will comment on the reaction to the Official Language Act. Discussions Saturday afternoon will also include french language teaching in public schools and the question of cultural minorities in the mass technology society.

The purpose of the conference is to allow minority-linguistic and cul-

NEW IMAGE FOR LUST

"Lakehead University Student Television will take on an entirely new image", commented LUST producer Clayton Petrick.

This week's show (Nov. 18-21) at 12:30 p.m. will include a series of entertaining and humourous episodes, satirizing various aspects of Lakehead University. One such example of this will be Mike Gravelles' portrayal of Cafeteria Manager Ed. Lawrence as 'the Galloping Gourmet'.

"In addition to the regular features of the show such as news, sports and folk singing", Petrick continued, "future shows will feature a folk spectacular with various Lakehead folk singers, coverage of the 1970 Winter Camival and interviews with important dignitaries".

tural groups to meet and exchange views on the continued development of cultural diversity in Northwestern Ontario. Along with the views of the English and French speaking dominant cultures, the conference will consider the needs and wishes of well established ethnic groups. It is hoped that these discussions will give new perspectives and understanding in the identification of this area's cultural-linguistic resources.

All interested individuals are invited to attend. Registration forms are available at the A.M.S. Office, Lakehead University.

UNIVERSITY PRESS FIRST MAJOR PUBLICATION

Copies of the first official publication printed on the Lakehead University Press will be released this week.

The publication is a report entitled "Intellectual Dissent in Ukraine SSR". Direct quotes from these books considered to be the most authoritative writings on the intellectual dissent of the Ukrainians within the Soviet Union, are contained in the booklet.

A forward to the 40-page booklet was written by second year M.A. student, Roman Petryshyn.

"There is no doubt that the dissention occurring in the Ukraine today" commented Petryshyn, "is of major consequence to the policies of the Soviet Union in international affairs."

A motion to print the booklet was instigated by Lakehead University representatives to the Canadian Union of Students Congress held at Guelph University in September, 1968.

Copies of the booklet will be sent on behalf of CUS to major university libraries in North America and Europe, to Canadian members of of parliament and senate and to foreign embassys and counselllets in Canada. A limited number of copies are available to interested persons in the AMS office.

NEW LANGUAGE FACILITIES OPENED

Lakehead University's new language facilities in the main building were officially opened on Friday, November 21 during the two-day symposium on Language Learning.

Department Secretary Christine Hapta is shown above in one of the "dial-a-program" booths which were recently installed in one of the new language labs. Using the dial access system, students can dial a language lesson, a play or poetry reading in a number of different languages.
