A new departmental information brochure for potential undergraduates, "Physics at Lakehead University" has just been completed. Another brochure, mainly for summer school students, is due from the printers next week and will be available at the Registrar's office. It is entitled, "A Guide to Lakehead University".

☐ Shimmering silks, glittering jewels and shades of Arabian Nights will adorn the University Centre stage from June 9 to 14 for the musical production of "Kismet".

Under the direction of Dusty Miller and assistant-director Irene Dawson, a cast of over 50 singers, dancers and actors will relive the exciting days of old Bagdad each night beginning at 8 p.m.

Effectively disguised as sultry harem-girls, beggars and fierce guards, members of the Lakehead Choral Group, Ballet Club, Cambrian Players and Music Festival have combined their talents in the ambitious production. In addition, the Lakehead Symphony Orchestra will add accompaniment for the songs and dances as well as supplying mood music for the actors.

Ernie Docjack (as the poet), George Warne (as the Wazir), Paul Inksetter (as the royal Caliph), Mary Jane Osborne (as the poet's daughter) and Ann Calich (as the Wazir's wife) have major acting/singing roles. Prominent roles are also played by Don Jamieson (as Omar, the Kalif's advisor) and Peter Raffo (as Jawan, a high class thief).

Kismet, romantic tale of a day in the life of a poetic beggar in legendary Bagdad, has been chosen by Lakehead Musical Productions for its major presentation this year. Groups combining in this ambitious musical play June 9 - 14 at Lakehead University Centre are Cambrian Players, Lakehead Ballet Guild, Lakehead Choral Group, Lakehead Music Festival and Lakehead Symphony Orchestra.

The score for Kismet has contributed several semi-classical sentimental songs to the repertoire of many popular singers of today such as Jim Nabors and Bob Goulet. They include Stranger in Paradise; And This Is My Beloved; Sands of Time; Not Since Ninevah; He's in Love; Baubles, Bangles and Beads; Rahadlakum and others.

The production Kismet, a musical Arabian Night, is based on a play by Edward Knoblock with music and lyrics by Robert Wright and George Forrest from the themes of Alexander Borodin.

Tickets for the "baggy-pant event" are $2.50. The box office at Simpsons-Sears may still have tickets for the early productions.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS MEET

☐ Six members of the Lakehead University Board of Governors will officially retire at the annual board meeting Monday, at 4 p.m. Retiring members include Board Chairman M. W. Bartley, Donald G. Clark, James R. Machan, Donald R. MacMillan, Robert Costello and John E. Fahlgren.
