LABOUR DAY HOLIDAY

LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY'S BUSINESS OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY MON., SEPT. 1, 1969.

by Dennis Wallace, President of AMS

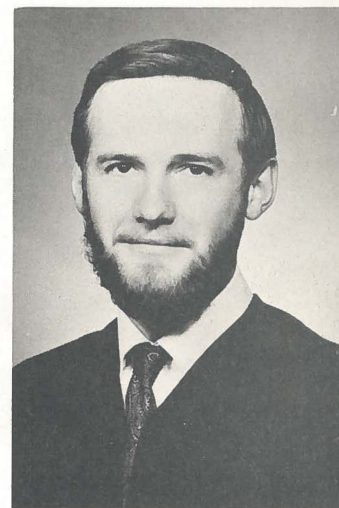

The 33rd Annual Canadian Union of Students (C.U.S.), National Congress will be held at Lakehead University from August 27 to September 3. It is the annual meeting for all member universities from across Canada to formulate policies for the union for the coming year. As well, the president for 1970-71 will be elected.

C.U.S. is presently facing the problem of lack of membership due to the referendums on various campuses last year. It is the hope of the member universities that the differences of the various campuses can be resolved and that the delegates could then return to their student bodies with concrete policies which could be carried out.

The congress will be open to all interested persons (students, academic and administrative staff, public) and it will be an ideal opportunity for delegates to observe at first hand the formulation of guidelines by which the union will operate. Further, if anyone has an issue which he wishes to have raised, it may be brought before The Congress for discussion. Hopefully, The Congress will help to stimulate more conscious and co-ordinated programs for Lakehead University in the coming year.

Some of the issues which will arise should prove of great importance to students at Lakehead. They will include the growing level of student unemployment before and after graduation and how it ties in with the Canadian economy; the powers of department committees over top level representation such as The Senate; and curricula committees which would look into such things as the relevance of certain courses or the lines along which they are taught.

In the coming year, C.U.S. will be making an all out effort to rebuild the union and to implement bread and butter policies such as those previously mentioned. The overriding factor in all motions passed by C.U.S. is that they are of no use unless they are followed up by the council and students of the member campuses. It is hoped that there will be student participation by students from Lakehead University.

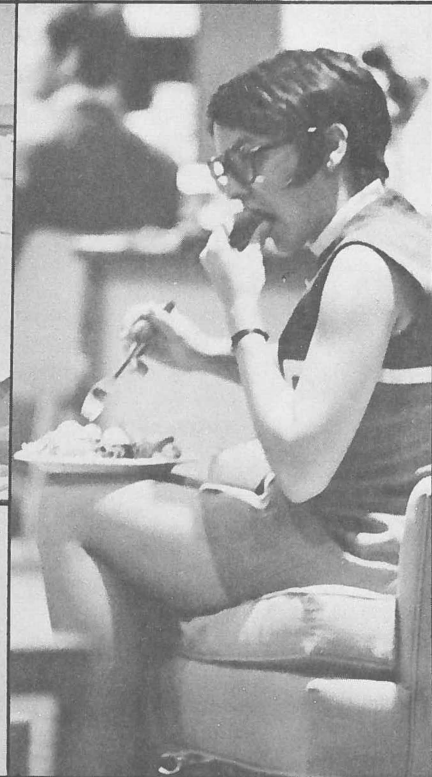

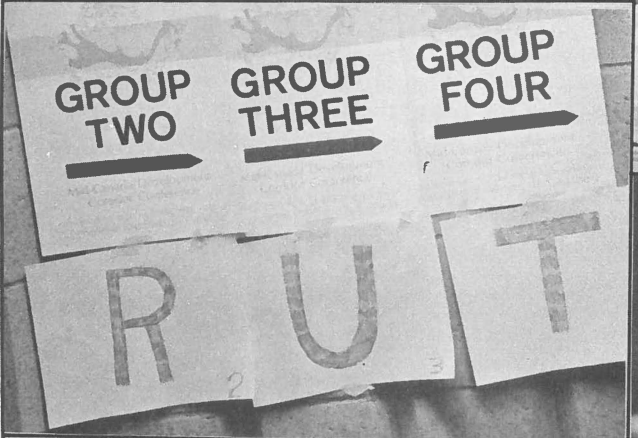

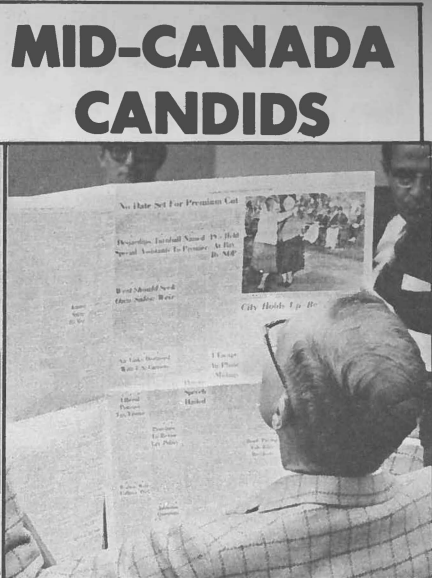

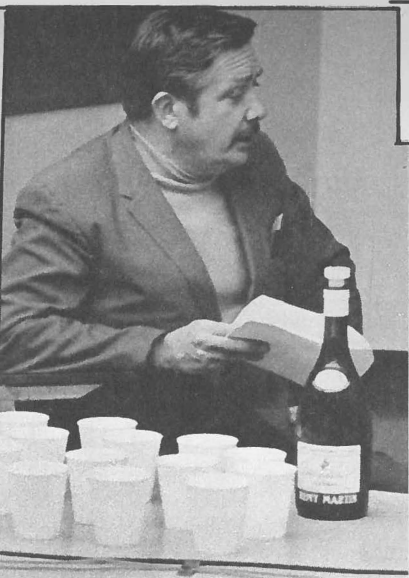

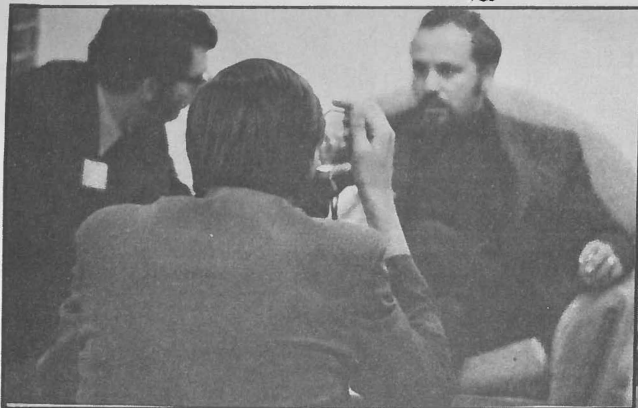

DENNIS WALLACE
AMS President
