

FLEMING — Mr. J. Murray Fleming of 103 Summit Ave. died suddenly August 7th 1987. Born in Winnipeg, Manitoba on July 16th, 1899 he graduated in Civil Engineering from the University of Manitoba in 1921. In 1924 he came to Port Arthur to work for C.D. Howe Co. Ltd. becoming President in 1935. He oversaw the design and construction of Grain Elevators in every major part of Canada including Churchill, Man. The Firm designed the N.R.U. the second atomic reactor in Canada, the iron ore dock in Sept Isles, Quebec for the Iron Ore Company of Canada Mega project as well as many projects overseas. He remained as President of C.D. Howe Co. Limited and Howe International until 1968 and became Chairman of the Board of the Company until he retired in 1975. Recognition of his accomplishments came when he was designated as a Fellow of the Engineering Institute of Canada, an award for distinction and excellence in engineering as well as for service rendered to the profession and society. He is a past Chairman of the Board of Governors of Lakehead University and was awarded an Honorary Doctorate in Engineering in 1975. Past President of Port Arthur Chamber of Commerce and past Chairman of the Thunder Bay Branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada. Survived by son John, Thunder Bay, daughter Margaret, and son-in-law Robert Anglin, Toronto and grandchildren Peter and Susan Fleming, Paul, Gordon, Maureen and Carolyn Anglin. Predeceased by his wife Viola in August 1986. Funeral services Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in St. Paul's United Church, conducted by Rev. Jack Paterson with interment in Riverside Cemetery. Flowers gratefully declined. If desired donations to the Partner's Campaign, Lakehead University or the charity of your choice. Visitation from 7-9 p.m. Monday in the Sargent & Son Funeral Chapel.