

THE RT. HON. THE LORD CARADON

G.C.M.G., K.C.V.O., O.B.E., P.C.

Lord Caradon, G.C.M.G., K.C.V.O., O.B.E., P.C. was appointed Minister of State for Foreign Affairs and permanent United Kingdom Representative at the United Nations in October 1964. He was created a Life Peer at the time of this appointment, choosing as his title Lord Caradon of St. Cleer in the County of Cornwall.

Hugh Mackintosh Foot was born in Plymouth, October 8, 1907. He was educated at the Quaker school at Reading, Leighton Park School, and St. John's College, Cambridge where he took his B.A. in 1929. He was President of the Union at Cambridge, and was also a member of its debating team which visited American Universities. Lord Caradon married Florence Sylvia Tod in 1936; they have three sons and a daughter.

On leaving Cambridge, Lord Caradon entered the Colonial Service and was posted to Palestine as an Administrative Officer. He served in some of the toughest areas in Palestine during the troubled nineteen-thirties, in the Colonial Office in 1938, and then west to Trans-Jordan as Assistant British Resident. For six months in 1943 he was seconded to the British Military Administration in Cyrenaica.

Later in 1943 he went to Cyprus as Colonial Secretary; he acted as Governor in 1944. There followed two years as Colonial Secretary in Jamaica and then four as Chief Secretary in Nigeria; in both countries he several times acted as Governor. In 1951 he returned to Jamaica as Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief, an appointment he held until 1957.

He was created K.C.M.G. in 1951, and received the K.C.V.O. in 1953 to commemorate the visit of the Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh to Jamaica. He was promoted to G.C.M.G. in the 1957 birthday honours. Lord Caradon was made an honorary Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge in 1960 and an Honorary Doctor of Laws of Princeton University in 1965.

As Sir Hugh Foot he had previously served as permanent United Kingdom representative on the U.N. Trusteeship Council with the personal rank of Ambassador (May 1961 - October 1962).
