Reception Following Convocation

THE HONOURABLE PAULINE M. McGIBBON

OC., B.A., LL.D., D.U., D.Hum.L.,
B.A.A.(Theatre), Hon. F.R.C.P.S.(C).

Acting as Chancellor on behalf of
THE HONOURABLE BORA LASKIN
P.C., M.A., LL.M., LL.D., D.Phil., D.HuL., F.R.S.C.
Chief Justice of Canada

On April 10, 1974, The Honourable Pauline M. McGibbon was installed as the 22nd Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, following years of dedication to education, social works and the development of culture.

Pauline McGibbon's university career began at the University of Toronto where she obtained her degree in Modern History in 1933. Over the years, it continued with her being named President of the Victoria College Alumnae Association, a member of the Senate of the University of Toronto and the first woman President of the University's Alumni Association. In 1971 she became the first woman Chancellor of the University of Toronto as well as the first woman Governor of Upper Canada College. On July 1, 1977, Her Honour became the first woman Chancellor of the University of Guelph.

Many universities have granted honorary degrees to the Lieutenant-Governor: the University of Alberta, the University of Ottawa, the University of Western Ontario, Queen's University, the University of Toronto, Laval University and St. Lawrence University, Canton, New York.

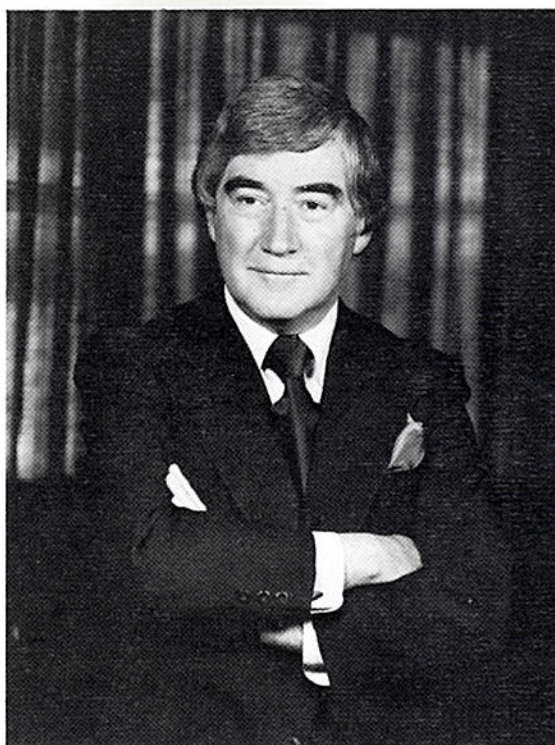

The Lieutenant-Governor has enjoyed active participation in the theatre and arts in Canada. She was President of the Dominion Drama Festival, first woman to be Chairman of the Board of the National Theatre School of Canada and first woman President of the Canadian Conference of the Arts. In 1957, Her Honour was awarded the Canadian Drama Award for services rendered to the Canadian Theatre and, in 1974, the Ryerson Polytechnical Institute granted her its first Honorary Degree in Theatre Arts.

Lakehead University is pleased to welcome the Lieutenant-Governor, the Honourable Pauline McGibbon, to our campus. We are grateful to Her Honour for graciously consenting to act on behalf of Mr. Justice Laskin as Chancellor of the University on the occasion of this Special Convocation.

Her Honour is greatly supported in her duties as Lieutenant-Governor by her husband, Mr. Donald W. McGibbon, retired Vice-President and Treasurer of Imperial Oil Limited. Both Her Honour and Mr. McGibbon were born and educated in Sarnia, Ontario.

GEORGE
ALEXANDER HARROWER

PRESIDENT
LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY

George Alexander Harrower was appointed Lakehead University's third President and Vice-Chancellor on July 1, 1978.

Formerly Vice-President (Academic) of Queen's University at Kingston, Ontario, Dr. Harrower has had a long and distinguished career as a scientist and university administrator.

Dr. Harrower, 54, was born in Flesherton, Ontario. He attended the University of Western Ontario, graduating with a Bachelor of Science in physics and the University Gold Medal in 1949. In 1950 he graduated from McGill University with a Master of Science, and two years later, earned a Doctor of Philosophy from the same university.

Following graduation, Dr. Harrower was employed by Bell Telephone Laboratories in New Jersey where he carried out research on physical electronics and high frequency devices. He joined the Physics Department at Queen's University as Assistant Professor in 1955, and moved through the ranks to become Professor in 1963.

As a university administrator, Dr. Harrower served as Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Science at Queen's from 1964 to 1969, Vice-Principal (Academic) from 1969 to 1976 and Director of the Donald Gordon Centre for Continuing Education from 1977 to 1978. In those positions Dr. Harrower was much involved in the rapid growth and development which the Ontario university system experienced during that period.

As a scientist, Dr. Harrower's interests lie in physical electronics, radio astronomy and cosmology; he played a major role in the development of radio astronomy research at Queen's University. Dr. Harrower has published a number of scientific papers and has participated in various international conferences. He is a member of the International Astronomical Union and is listed in American Men and Women of Science and The Canadian Who's Who.

Dr. Harrower's interests include photography, sailing, and architecture. He is married to the former Judith Bollman and has five children: Timothy, Lisa, David, Kardi, and Mark.

CEREMONY OF ADMISSION TO DEGREES

The Graduating Classes will enter Convocation Hall in procession under the guidance of their marshals and will stand before the seats reserved for them.

The audience will rise when the Senate, the Board of Governors, the Platform Party, including the President and the Chancellor*, enter the Hall and will remain standing through "O Canada", the Invocation, until the Chancellor declares the "Convocation Open".

The Installation of Dr. George Alexander Harrower, as the third President and Vice-Chancellor of the University, will be followed by an address by the President.

On conclusion of the introduction of the representatives of other Canadian Universities, the President will request the members of the Graduating Classes to rise in their places and when they have done so, he will address the Chancellor as follows:

Your Honour, Madame Chancellor, will you admit these graduands.

The Chancellor will reply as follows:

By virtue of the authority vested in me, I admit you as degree (and diploma) graduates of the University.

The members of the Graduating Classes will resume their seats. Greetings and congratulations will then be extended to them on behalf of the University.

The President will then call on the presenters, in the order indicated in the programme; the presenters will call forward the various groups of candidates for degrees (and diplomas) and will read the names of the graduands present, one by one, in the order that each candidate is to advance and receive his (her) degree (diploma) at the hands of the Chancellor.

As soon as a candidate's name is called by the presenter he (she) will cross the platform and kneel upon the stool in front of the Chancellor; place his (her) hands within the hands of the Chancellor who will admit him (her) to the degree (diploma). The candidate will then rise and proceed across the platform, down the opposite steps, from those he (she) mounted the platform, receive his (her) degree (diploma) from the Registrar, and then return to his (her) seat.

After degrees (diplomas) have been conferred upon all candidates present, the President will present the University Secretary to receive the degrees for all absent candidates.

The Secretary will kneel on the stool before the Chancellor, and the Chancellor will confer the degrees upon all absent candidates through the Secretary of the University.

The Chancellor will bring the proceeding to a close by saying:

I hereby declare this Convocation closed.

"God Save The Queen"

*Where the title Chancellor appears read Protem Chancellor.
