noon Convocations.*

CHIEF JUSTICE BORA LASKIN
PC, MA, LL.M., Hon LL.D., Hon DCL,
Hon DPhil, Hon L.Hu.D., FRSCan

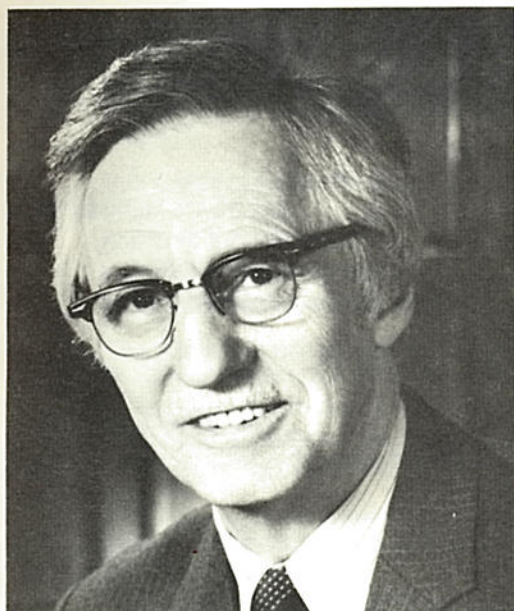

Born in Fort William, Chief Justice Laskin attended Ogden Street Public School and the Fort William Collegiate Institute. He received his B.A. from the University of Toronto in 1933, his M.A. in 1935 and his LL.B. in 1936. Fulfilling a life-long ambition, he was called to the Bar in 1937; he also received his LL.M. from Harvard Law School that same year.

In 1940, Chief Justice Laskin was appointed Lecturer in Law and Assistant Professor of Law at the University of Toronto Law School. In 1945 he accepted the post of Lecturer in Law at Osgoode Hall Law School, but returned to Toronto in 1949, where he was awarded a Full Professorship. In 1965 he became a Judge on the Ontario Court of Appeals and in 1970 he became the youngest member of the Supreme Court of Canada. At the time of his appointment to the Supreme Court, John Turner, Canadian Minister of Justice, cited Chief Justice Laskin as "that rare individual who combines in one person the excellence of many." On his appointment as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in 1973, E. Neil McKelvey, President of the Canadian Bar Association, said, "Laskin has an outstanding judicial career, his approach to the law being that it should evolve with the times, taking note of changes in society, rather than being unduly bound up with tradition."

Chief Justice Laskin's contributions have been recognized far and wide. His list of honours includes doctorates from Queen's University, University of Edinburgh, Trent University, University of Toronto, University of New Brunswick, and from many other universities; he received a Doctor of Civil Laws from Harvard University in 1979, the second Canadian to be so honoured by Harvard.

Chief Justice Laskin served as President of the Canadian Association of Law Teachers from 1953 to 1954. Later he was President of the Canadian Association of University Teachers from 1964 to 1965. Appointed a Queen's Counsel in 1956, he became a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada in 1964. In the field of education, Chief Justice Laskin served as Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, and is a former member of the Board of Governors of York University and of Carleton University. During the 1970-71 academic year, Chief Justice Laskin agreed to succeed Senator Norman M. Paterson as the Chancellor of Lakehead University and he served in that capacity with distinction until 1980.

Chief Justice Laskin's writings include numerous articles in legal periodicals and books dealing with Land Law and Canadian Constitutional Law. His younger brother, Saul, was the first Mayor of the City of Thunder Bay and is presently the Chairman of the University Board of Governors.

SAMUEL DELBERT CLARK

OC, MA, PhD, Hon LLD, Hon DLitt, FRSCan.

Dr. S. D. Clark was one of the earliest Canadian career academics in Sociology and spent most of his career at the University of Toronto where he was a Full Professor from 1953 through to his retirement in 1976.

His eminence has been frequently recognized by the Sociology and Social Science communities in Canada. The Royal Society of Canada was founded in 1886 by the Governor-General to group together the best university people in the country. Dr. Clark is not only a Fellow but also was President of the Royal Society of Canada for 1975-1976.

In 1978 his eminence was recognized by the government with his award as a member of the Order of Canada to recognize a significant achievement by Canadians.

Dr. Clark is also an Honorary President for Life of the Canadian Association of Sociology and Anthropology, the professional organization in the field. He was appointed Honorary Life President in 1968.

Dr. Clark is known for nine books and some 35 articles in refereed journals. His best known book, Church and Sect in Canada, is considered a classic in both Canadian studies and the sociology of religion. Much of his work outlined the nature of social development in frontier areas of new settlement.

Dr. Clark also acted as General Editor of the Social Credit Series sponsored by the Rockefeller Foundation. This series of ten books is recognized as one of the most fruitful series in the Social Sciences ever published on Canadian Studies.

Dr. Clark also contributed to the development of Canadian Sociology as Chairman of the Department of Sociology at the University of Toronto from 1963-1969 (the first Chairman of the department) and as co-ordinator for Sociology prior to 1963 when Sociology at the University of Toronto was part of the Department of Political Economy.

Many prominent sociologists such as Professor Ken Duncan (Guelph), Dr. Jean Burnet and Dr. William E. Mann (York) were greatly influenced by Dr. Clark.

Since his retirement in 1976, Dr. Clark has acted as Visiting Professor at the University of Guelph (1976-1978), Lakehead University (1978-1980) and at the University of Edinburgh (1980-1981). Dr. Clark was hired for a two-year period at Lakehead specifically to comply with suggestions from The Appraisals Committee, Ontario Council on Graduate Studies, to hire a senior sociologist to consolidate the development of the graduate programme. This report specifically mentioned Dr. S. D. Clark as the sort of person needed. Dr. Clark's contributions led to increased maturity in the department.

Dr. Clark is widely known as the Dean of Canadian Sociology and two books on his career (by Harry Hiller and Deborah Harrison) have just been published outlining and analyzing his contributions. The contributions have also been recognized by honorary degrees awarded him by the University of Calgary, Dalhousie University and St. Mary's University.

TERENCE MICHAEL PENELHUM
MA, B.Phil, FRSCan.

Terence Michael Penelhum was born in Bradford-on-Avon, England, on April 26, 1929. He graduated with a M.A., First Class Honours, in Philosophy from the University of Edinburgh in 1950. His broad Scottish education provided him with a deep grounding in a number of disciplines upon which he has since built with much distinction. An Alexander Campbell Fraser Scholar at Oriel College, Oxford, he was awarded the B.Phil (Oxon), in June 1952, and proceeded to Yale University as The English-Speaking Union Visiting Fellow. During the next ten years he taught in the University of Alberta, Edmonton, rising to the rank of Associate Professor. Appointed to the University of Calgary in 1963, he was its Dean of Arts and Science, 1964-1967, and Head of the Department of Philosophy, 1964-1971. He was also an elected member of its Board of Governors, 1967-1970, and a Founding Member and first Director of the Calgary Institute for the Humanities, 1967-1970.

During a Sabbatical year, 1972-73, he pursued his interests in philosophy of religion and analytical philosophy at the University of Oxford. He was a Founding Member of the University of Calgary's Department of Religious Studies, its first Chairman and lecturer, and from 1973-1980 held a Joint Appointment as a Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies in both Departments. Since then he has been a full-time Professor of Religious Studies. He has given long and distinguished service, not only to the related disciplines of Philosophy and Religious Studies, but also in fostering the arts and humanities within his own University and in others, and at the higher levels of Provincial consultation and decision most notably in the Provinces of Ontario and Alberta.

For five successive years, he was Canadian Representative on the Council for Philosophical Studies of the American Philosophical Association. He was President of the Canadian Philosophical Association during 1968-1969. From 1973-1974, he was Consultant on Planning and Environmental Studies, Graduate Programmes, to the Advisory Committee on Academic Planning of the Council of Ontario Universities. He was a member of the Advisory Academic Panel of the Canada Council from 1971-1975 and its Panel Chairman during 1973-1974. He was Chairman of the Negotiated Grants Committee of the Canada Council from 1974-1977. In 1980 he was the overwhelming choice of the A.C.A.P. Philosophy Discipline Group of the Universities of the Province of Ontario to be the Canadian consultant in the evaluation of Philosophy programmes in Universities and Colleges throughout the Province. In addition to these activities, he was a founding member and the first editor of The Canadian Journal of Philosophy from 1970-1976. His wide ranging interests and personal qualities befitted him for the position of lecturer and tour leader of the World University Service of Canada, seminar in Greece and Germany in 1956. He was elected Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada in July, 1975 and has since continued to be an active and highly esteemed contributor to its proceedings.

Professor Penelhum within a five year period, 1970-1975 was the author of four major works in a variety of fields of interest, some of them breaking new ground, and all illustrating the acumen and penetration of his keen mind. Survival and Disembodied Existence is a study in Philosophical Psychology. Religion and Rationality is a comprehensive study of its subject. Problems of Religious Knowledge analyzes how faith relates to knowledge in religion. Hume attempts to put this great Scottish philosopher in a contemporary perspective. Two further books have been accepted for publication in the immediate future. One is entitled Scepticism and Fideism, and the other, Butler in the series The Arguments of the Philosophers. In addition Professor Penelhum has edited two noteworthy anthologies: one on Immanuel Kant, The First Critique, and the other entitled Immortality. Since writing on "Hume on Personal Identity" in 1955, Professor Penelhum has written over thirty articles in a twenty-five year period, some of these being republished more than once. He has been described by one leading Canadian philosopher and administrator as "one of the two or three world-class Canadian philosophers." He has held many visiting appointments at universities in Canada and the United States over the last two decades and completed a tour of duty at Lakehead University in Philosophy and Religious Studies, with distinction, in 1975.

CEREMONY OF ADMISSION TO DEGREES

The Graduating Classes will enter Convocation Hall in procession under the guidance of their marshals and will stand before the seats reserved for them.

The audience will rise when the Senate, the Board of Governors, the Platform Party, including the President and the Chancellor, enter the Hall and will remain standing through "O Canada", the Invocation, until the Chancellor declares the "Convocation Open."

MORNING CONVOCATION

The president will present to the Chancellor, the candidates for the honorary degrees.

On the conclusion of the readings, the Chancellor will confer the degrees by pronouncing the appropriate formula.

The Chancellor will invite Dr. Morris to address Convocation.

AFTERNOON CONVOCATION

The President will present to the Chancellor, the candidate for the honorary degree.

The candidate will stand facing the Chancellor during the reading of the citation.

On the conclusion of the reading, the Chancellor will confer the degree by pronouncing the appropriate formula and the recipient will be gowned and hooded.

The Chancellor will invite Dr. Penelhum to address Convocation.

On the conclusion of the Convocation Address, the President will request the members of the Graduating Classes to rise in their places, and when they have done so, will address the Chancellor as follows:

Mr. Chancellor, will you admit these graduands.

The Chancellor will reply as follows:

By virtue of the authority vested in me, I admit you as degree and diploma graduates of Lakehead University.

The members of the Graduating Classes will resume their seats.

The President will then call on the presenters, in the order indicated in the programme; the presenters will call forward the various groups of candidates for degrees/diplomas and will read the names of the graduates present, one by one, in the order that each candidate is to advance and receive his/her degree/diploma at the hands of the Chancellor.

As soon as a candidate's name is called by the presenter he/she will cross the platform and kneel upon the stool in front of the Chancellor; place his/her hands within the hands of the Chancellor who will admit him/her to the degree/diploma. The candidate will then rise and proceed across the platform, down the opposite steps from those he/she mounted the platform, receive his/her degree/diploma from the Registrar, and return to his/her seat.

After degrees/diplomas have been conferred upon all candidates present, the President will present the University Secretary to receive the degrees on behalf of all absent candidates.

The Secretary will kneel on the stool before the Chancellor, and the Chancellor will confer the degrees upon all absent candidates through the Secretary of the University.

The Chancellor will bring the proceedings to a close by saying:

I hereby declare this Convocation closed.

"God Save The Queen"
