G. BERNARD WEILER
Chancellor

Mr. G. Bernard Weiler was born in Mildmay, Ontario on February 2nd, 1910. He received his primary and secondary education in Bruce County, Ontario, and in 1931 he graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Toronto. He then studied Law at Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, graduated, and was called to the Bar in Ontario in 1934.

In the time of the Great Depression, Mr. Weiler began the practice of Law in a small mining town in Northern Ontario, then acted in the incorporation of the Town of Geraldton in 1937, and continued to act as the town's solicitor until 1946. In that year, Mr. Weiler joined his brother in the practice of Law in the City of Fort William, Ontario. He continued as one of the senior partners in the law firm of Weiler, Maloney, Nelson until 1985 when he became, and now continues to be, counsel to that firm. He received the designation Queen's Counsel in 1954 and is a life member of both the Law Society of Upper Canada and the Canadian Bar Association.

Generous with his time, Mr. Weiler has served as President of the Board of McKellar General Hospital, President of the Thunder Bay Law Association, Trustee of the Thunder Bay Foundation, Trustee of the St. Joseph's Foundation of Thunder Bay, member of the Board of Governors and its Executive Committee of Lakehead University, and Chairman since its inception of the Area Committee of the Ontario Legal Aid Plan.

Mr. Weiler has been a regular advisor to the Roman Catholic Diocese of Thunder Bay and a vigorous supporter of St. Joseph's Heritage. In 1982, his service was acknowledged with the title of Knight Commander of the Order of St. Gregory awarded by Pope John Paul II. He is also a long-standing participant in the Michaelmas Conference.

Mr. Weiler and his wife, Marcella, have raised five children. The second eldest, John Weiler, died of leukemia while still a youth. Their sons Paul, Robert and Joseph have followed their father into the profession of Law, while daughter, Susan, entered the teaching profession in Thunder Bay.

In addition to his active practice as counsel to the firm of Weiler, Maloney, Nelson, Mr. Weiler continues his avid interest in Gyro, golfing, gardening, bridge and curling.

DOUGLAS M. FISHER
Canadian Educator and Writer

Born in Sioux Lookout, Ontario on September 19, 1919, Mr. Douglas M. Fisher has had a long association with Northwestern Ontario.

After graduating from public school in his native Sioux Lookout, Mr. Fisher continued his secondary education at Fort William Collegiate Institute from 1931 through 1938. He then served as a miner and forest ranger before joining the Canadian Army. He was a loader-operator in an armoured car regiment and saw action in Northwestern Europe during 1944 and 1945.

Following his army service, Mr. Fisher attended Ryerson Polytechnical Institute and the University of Toronto where he gained his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1949, and his Bachelor of Library Science degree the following year. He later studied history and archives at the University of London (England) and Queen's University in Kingston.

Mr. Fisher established a forest research library at what is now Lakehead University, then the Lakehead Technical Institute. He also taught at Port Arthur Collegiate Institute.

Douglas Fisher was elected as CCF member of Parliament for Port Arthur in 1957, and was re-elected in subsequent elections in 1958, 1962 and 1963. In May 1963, Mr. Fisher was elected Deputy House Leader (N.D.P.).

He began a column of political comment in the Toronto Telegram in 1963, switching to the Toronto Sun after the demise of the Telegram in 1971. His column is now syndicated to roughly thirty Canadian dailies including one in Thunder Bay.

In addition to his writing, he also broadcasts interview programs based primarily in Ottawa. He has served as conciliator in labour-management disputes in the federal jurisdiction as a union nominee.

His multi-faceted interests have seen him serve as a founding member and later as chairman of Hockey Canada. He is also a director of the Coaching Association of Canada.

Mr. Fisher's writing skills contributed to the Federal Task Force report on Fitness and Amateur Sport, setting many new directions for national programs. He later co-authored a sports history, Canada's Sporting Heroes, together with a study guide for use in Ontario schools. More recently he authored the 1980 report, "The Policies and Programs of the Ontario Government for Recreation, Sports and Fitness," for then Premier William G. Davis.

E. MARGARET FULTON
Canadian Educator

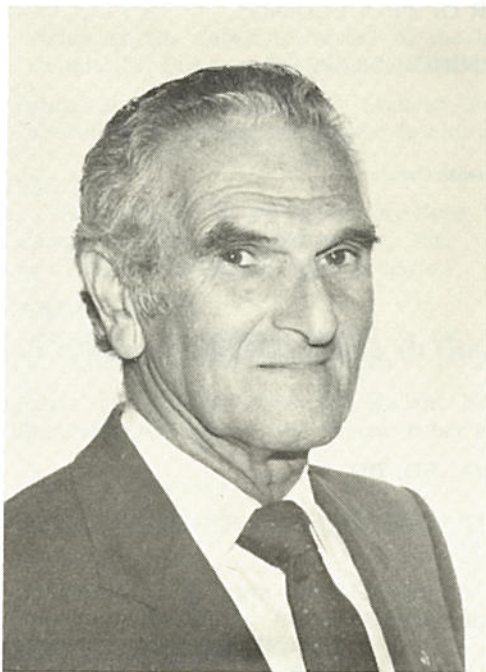

Born in Birtle, Manitoba, Dr. Margaret Fulton received her Teaching Certificate from Winnipeg Normal School in 1942. She taught school in rural Manitoba between 1942 and 1948. While doing so, she continued her university studies obtaining her diploma in physical education from the University of Minnesota in 1946. She subsequently moved to Thunder Bay where she taught until 1953, at which time she returned to the University of Manitoba where she gained her Bachelor of Arts degree in 1956.

Margaret Fulton returned to Thunder Bay where she became head of the Department of English at Fort William Collegiate Institute from 1960 through 1963. She received her Master of Arts degree from the University of British Columbia in 1960 and her Teaching Specialist's Certificate in English from the University of Toronto in 1962 followed by her Ph.D. degree from the University of Toronto in 1968.

Dr. Fulton has an impressive university record having held the positions of Associate Professor in the English Department at Wilfrid Laurier University, Dean of Women in the Faculty of Education at the University of British Columbia and most recently, President of Mount Saint Vincent University in Halifax, Nova Scotia. She is presently an Adjunct Professor at the University of British Columbia as well as an Education Consultant.

Margaret Fulton has received many special awards including Honorary degrees from the Université de Moncton, the University of Winnipeg, Dalhousie University, and York University as well as being appointed an Officer in the Order of Canada.

Her total involvement in professional and learned societies, her extensive participation in special projects and government appointments, her numerous directorships, and her countless publications make her one of the most outstanding women in Canada today.

SAUL LASKIN
Local Businessman

Born in Fort William, Ontario, in 1918, Mr. Saul Laskin received his secondary education at Fort William Collegiate Institute and later at Harbord Collegiate Institute in Toronto. He subsequently earned a diploma in Business Administration from the University of Washington.

During World War II, Mr. Laskin served overseas with the North Nova Scotia Highlanders, 3rd Division, as Lieutenant and Acting Captain.

Active in local business, Mr. Laskin was president of Laskin's Furniture until his recent retirement.

Mr. Laskin has been active in community activities in the city for many years. His achievements include being past president of Shaarey Shomayim Synagogue, the Port Arthur Red Cross, the Ontario Mayors and Reeves, B'nai Brith Lodge, the V.I.P. Independent Purchasers, and the Port Arthur Rotary Club. He has also served as past chairman of the Advisory Board of the Unemployment Commission of Canada, and was a past chairman of the Board of Governors of Lakehead University, having served on the Board from 1965 to 1973 and from 1975 to 1982.

A former alderman for the City of Port Arthur from 1959 to 1960, he served as Mayor of Port Arthur from 1962 to 1969 and was the first Mayor of the City of Thunder Bay, serving from 1970 to 1972.

Mr. Laskin is an officer of the Order of St. John.

He and his wife, Adele, reside in Toronto. They have five children.

CLIFF M. McINTOSH
Canadian Adult Educator

Born in Dauphin, Manitoba, in 1929, Mr. Cliff McIntosh was recreation director in Atikokan, Ontario, for six years before founding Quetico Centre in 1958. Quetico Centre's purpose is to help people cope constructively with change in the world in which they live.

Cliff McIntosh started his goal of humanizing the work place in 1961. He believed that meaningful work for employees and the achievement of organizational goals are interdependent upon each other. This view was radical when he began helping organizations to maximize their concern for people and production. He has helped countless organizations bring about needed changes through constructive techniques.

The methods through which Mr. McIntosh has worked are numerous. He has developed and utilized a number of concepts including the deliberate change of organizational culture, and the use of team management to achieve individual and organizational goals. Many changes have been effected by Mr. McIntosh's methods. Mr. McIntosh has travelled extensively and has studied social change and how it has been achieved throughout the world.

The Quetico Centre is a living tribute to his work, beliefs, and influence, as it has become a world class educational institute.

In addition to other honours, in May, 1986, Mr. McIntosh was appointed a Companion of the Order of Canada, the highest honour that Canada can bestow on a civilian. Earlier this month, he also received the Order of Ontario, the only person from Northern Ontario to receive this distinction.

MAXWELL W. WARD
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
Wardair International Limited

Born in 1921 and educated in Edmonton, Alberta, Mr. Maxwell W. Ward joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1940 where he received his pilot's wings and served as a commissioned flight instructor at various Canadian bases during the Second World War.

After discharge from the RCAF in 1945, Mr. Ward flew as a bush pilot in the Northwest Territories. In 1946, he organized his own company, Polaris Charter Co. Ltd., based in Yellowknife, and with one single-engined aircraft he carried supplies and passengers throughout the sub-Arctic. Four years later, he left aviation and entered the construction business in Lethbridge, Alberta. In 1953, he returned to Yellowknife with a new charter service, Wardair Ltd. He flew prospectors, medical teams, food and machinery to remote corners of the North.

Wardair expanded steadily, and by 1962 it was operating six aircraft in the North and extended the company's operations into the overseas charter service. This was the beginning of the company's steady growth into one of the world's largest charter airlines.

In 1976, the company underwent a reorganization creating Wardair International Limited, the parent company to all Wardair subsidiaries. A further reorganization took place in 1985 at which time Mr. Ward assumed the role of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the company.

Today, Wardair is recognized as Canada's third largest scheduled carrier. It also operates an impressive international wide-bodied fleet of aircraft with scheduled flights to Puerto Rico, the United Kingdom and Scotland, as well as to a variety of other holiday destinations.

Maxwell Ward has been honoured with an impressive array of awards, including three honorary degrees, the Trans-Canada McKee Trophy, considered Canada's highest award in the field of aviation, as well as being appointed an Officer in the Order of Canada in 1975.

Mr. Ward lives in Edmonton, Alberta, with his wife Marjorie, the former Marjorie Doretha Skelton. They have two daughters and two sons.

CHARLES J. CARTER
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
Great Lakes Forest Products Limited

Mr. Charles J. Carter is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Great Lakes Forest Products Limited in Thunder Bay, Ontario. He was born in Port Arthur, Ontario, and attended local elementary and secondary schools. Following graduation from Queen's University with honours in civil engineering, he joined the engineering department at Great Lakes in 1947. He was appointed Vice-President Engineering, in 1964 and in 1966 was elected a Director. In 1971 he was appointed President of the company and in April 1978 was elected Chairman of the Board and President. In February, 1986 Mr. Carter was appointed Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Widely known in pulp and paper circles, Charles Carter is Vice-Chairman of the Ontario Forestry Council, Past Chairman of the executive board and presently a member of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, Past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Ontario Forest Industries Association and an ex-officio officer on a number of committees. He is presently a Director of the Ontario Forest Industries Association, the Ormiston Mining and Smelting Company Ltd., and Forintek Canada Corporation, as well as a member of the Association of Professional Engineers of Ontario.

Mr. Carter is active in community affairs in Thunder Bay. He is a past member of the Board of Governors of Lakehead University and a member and past member of several local hospital boards. He is also a member of the Order of St. John, the Shriners, Freemasons, and Gyro Club.

Mr. Carter and his wife, Muriel, reside in Thunder Bay. They have a married son living in Calgary, Alberta, and a married daughter living in Thunder Bay.

O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land,

True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts we see thee rise,

The true north strong and free!

From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee,
God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada we stand on guard
for thee,

O Canada! We stand on guard
for thee.
