TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL CONVOCATION
FOR THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

The Chancellor welcomes graduates, faculty, alumni and guests
to a reception in the Lakehead University Agora
following the Morning and Afternoon Convocations.

The Honourable
JEAN CHRETIEN
Former Deputy Prime Minister of Canada

The Honourable Jean Chrétien was born in Shawinigan, Québec on January 11, 1934, the son of Wellie Chrétien and Marie Boisvert-Chrétien. After attending schools in Shawinigan, Joliette and Trois-Rivières, he studied law at Laval University.

Mr. Chrétien was first elected to the House of Commons in 1963 representing the constituency of St-Maurice-Laflèche. During a career spanning twenty-three years, Mr. Chrétien served in numerous elected and appointed government positions including in 1984 as Deputy Prime Minister of Canada and Secretary of State for External Affairs. He was also Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources, Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada, Minister of Finance, Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce, President of the Treasury Board and Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

Currently, he is a counsel with the law firm of Lang Michener Lash Johnston with offices in Ottawa and Toronto. He married Aline Chaîné of Shawinigan in 1957. They have three children: France, Hubert and Michel.

MAUREEN FORRESTER

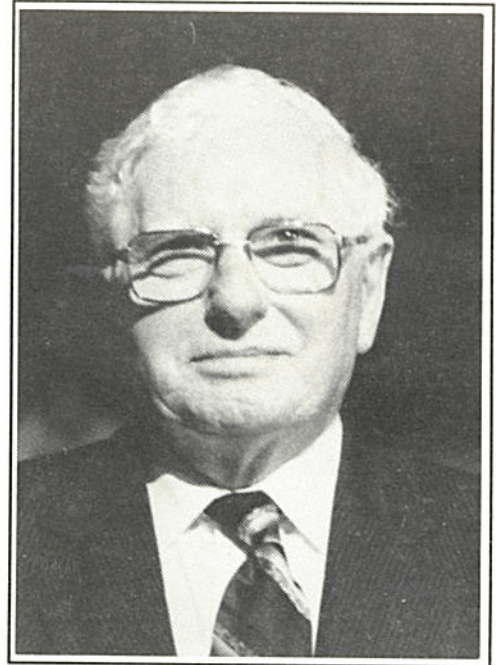

Canadian Contralto

Maureen Forrester, the foremost contralto of our time, has been heard by audiences on five continents as distinguished soloist with virtually every major orchestra in the world.

One of the world's greatest interpreters of Mahler, Miss Forrester's recent seasons have included acclaimed performances with the Berlin Philharmonic and Boston and Toronto Symphony Orchestras. Other outstanding performances were with the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Orchestre Symphonique de Québec, the Hong Kong and Calgary Philharmonic Orchestras and the Buffalo Philharmonic.

Maureen Forrester made her debut in Montreal and immediately was engaged to sing Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with the Montreal Symphony under Otto Klemperer. Word of Miss Forrester's remarkable talent soon reached Bruno Walter in New York, and in February 1957 she made her first Carnegie Hall appearance singing the contralto solo in Mahler's "Resurrection" Symphony. She since has become a favourite of many of the world's greatest conductors, performing under the batons of Eugene Ormandy, Herbert von Karajan, Leonard Bernstein, Seiji Ozawa, Zubin Mehta, James Levine and many others. Besides her numerous orchestra and recital appearances, Maureen Forrester also devotes time to the operatic stage.

In December 1988 Miss Forrester will finish her five-year term as Chairperson of the Canada Council, a position in which she has made significant contributions to the cultural life of her native country. Among her many honours are the Companion of the Order of Canada, which she received in 1967, the year it was created--the first artist to be so honoured. Miss Forrester also is the recipient of no less than fifteen honorary doctorates.

JOHN EDWARD STOKES
Former Speaker of the Ontario Legislature

Born in Schreiber, Ontario on February 17, 1923, John Edward Stokes received his education in that community's schools.

He worked as a trainman and later as a conductor with the Canadian Pacific Railway until he was elected to the Ontario Legislature in 1967. Throughout this period, Mr. Stokes was an active member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and served as chairman for thirteen years. He also was an active member of the Schreiber Kinsmen Club, the Knights of Columbus and was elected to serve on the Schreiber Hydro Commission for a number of years.

First elected to the Ontario Legislature from the Lake Nipigon Riding in 1967, Mr. Stokes was re-elected in 1971, 1975, 1977, and 1981 serving through 1985. During the eighteen year span he served as party whip for eight years for the New Democratic Party. He also served as Deputy Speaker for two years and as Speaker for four years.

As Speaker, Mr. Stokes served as President of the Ontario Branch of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association and Chairman of the Board of Internal Economy with a budget of $35 million. During his tenure as a member of the Legislature, Mr. Stokes was party spokesperson on Natural Resources, Tourism and Recreation and Indian and Northern Affairs.

Mr. Stokes was made a Knight of St. Gregory by Pope John Paul II in 1982. He is presently serving as Vice-Chairman of the Board of Governors at Confederation College and Vice-Chairman of the Thunder Bay Legal Aid Committee. He also serves on numerous provincial and local committees improving living conditions throughout Northwestern Ontario.

He is married to the former Helen Rock and the couple has four children: Catherine, Mark, Patrick and Ann.

A. L. (PETE) MUSSELMAN
Canadian Educator

Born on a farm near the village of Conestogo, Ontario on January 13, 1907, Mr. A. L. "Pete" Musselman learned at a very early age the hardships and virtues of the life of a farmer.

Mr. Musselman had limited formal education, but he completed the five years of the Ontario high school program during the winters of 1924-1926. Largely self-taught, he was awarded a scholarship to attend the University of Western Ontario from which he graduated with an Honours degree in Mathematics and Physics in 1931. He later received a Specialist's certificate from the Ontario College of Education in 1932. He taught at Fort William Vocational School and assisted worthy students in upgrading their studies so they could attend Fort William Collegiate Institute before undergoing further university training.

Mr. Musselman enlisted in the militia in 1939 as a second lieutenant in the artillery. He subsequently served in the R.C.A.F. at various bases throughout Canada, England, and Scotland as a radar expert and author of radar manuals. Following World War II, Mr. Musselman taught veterans before returning to the regular classroom and later, once again to the military where he taught during the Korean War.

Another aspect of his career in education was teaching mathematics at Lakehead Technical Institute. A firm believer in lifelong education, Mr. Musselman taught evening classes for a vast cross-section of workers in Northwestern Ontario including technicians, grain workers, Canada Car employees, and others wishing to learn more. More recently the cultural attractions of the Thunder Bay Community Auditorium have occupied his varied interests. Needless to say, Mr. Musselman's lifetime involvement in education has brought him many awards too numerous to mention.

CONVOCATION
Saturday, May 28, 1988
Community Auditorium

Afternoon Ceremony -- 2:30 p.m. for the Granting of Degrees and Diplomas

FOR THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

The Chancellor welcomes graduates, faculty, alumni and guests
to a reception in the Lakehead University Agora
following the Morning and Afternoon Convocations.

STEPHEN LEWIS
Canadian Ambassador
To The United Nations

Born in Ottawa, Ontario on November 11, 1937, Mr. Lewis received his post-secondary education at the University of Toronto and the University of British Columbia. Following his graduation, he spent two years teaching and travelling in Africa.

In 1963, Mr. Lewis was elected to the riding of Scarborough West at the age of 25, thereby becoming one of the youngest members ever to sit in the Ontario Legislature. Following four re-elections, he became provincial leader of the New Democratic Party. He led his party to the position of the Official Opposition in the Ontario Legislature in 1975. He stepped down from the leadership two years later and resigned his seat in November, 1978.

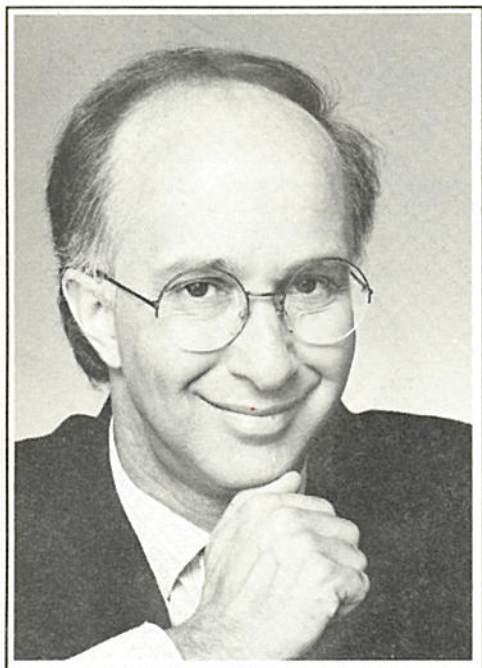

Until his nomination as Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Canada to the United Nations in New York on October 5, 1984, he was a prominent radio and television commentator on issues of public concern as well as serving as a noteworthy arbitrator in labour relations.

In May, 1986 during a special United Nations session on Africa, Mr. Lewis chaired the Committee which drafted the most recent five-year Program for African Economic Recovery. He was accorded a further honour four months later when the Secretary-General of the United Nations appointed Mr. Lewis as his Special Advisor on Africa to aid in "the mobilization of the international community."

Mr. Lewis has recently announced his resignation from his position at the United Nations and will return to teaching and writing in Toronto.

Mr. Lewis has received honorary degrees from McMaster University, York University, Concordia University, the University of New Brunswick, the University of Saskatchewan, McGill University and Mount Allison University. He has also won a number of outstanding awards in the areas of public policy, human rights, broadcasting integrity and human relations.

He is married to Michele Landsberg, author and newspaper columnist and the couple has three children: Ilana, Avi and Jenny.

PAUL ALLAN WOOD SHAFFER
Canadian Musician and Humanitarian

Paul Allan Wood Shaffer was born and raised in Thunder Bay. At the age of five he commenced the study of classical piano. He graduated from Fort William Collegiate Institute in 1968 as an Ontario Scholar. His further studies led him to the University of Toronto from which he graduated with his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1971 with a double major in Philosophy and Sociology.

Already entrenched in his musical interests, Mr. Shaffer entered the musical scene in Toronto as a keyboard player with his instruments being the piano and organ. In 1972 he was musical director for the hit Godspell which ran at the Royal Alexandra Theatre for one year.

His fortunes carried him to New York City where his credits included assistant conductor of The Magic Show starring the magician Doug Henning; musical conductor of Godspell; composer, musical consultant, and a supporting actor in Gilda Live from New York; and co-star with Mickey Rooney in A Year at the Top, a Hollywood produced sit-com by Norman Lear.

He spent five years in the band of the N.B.C. show Saturday Night Live. Mr. Shaffer is also a writer of special musical material and a supporting actor. He was the musical director of the Blues Brothers Band, the record album which went double platinum, selling in excess of two million copies.

He is now in his sixth season as the musical director of the N.B.C. band on the T.V. show Late Night with David Letterman.

Mr. Shaffer participated as a vocalist in the recording entitled Tears are not Enough and in the Live Aid international telecast. His humanitarian interests are being carried to his Thunder Bay home where he is Honorary Chairman of a charity show which will benefit the local Catscan Project.

THOMAS SIDNEY JONES S.StJ.
Northwestern Ontario Entrepreneur

Born in Fort William, Ontario, Thomas Sidney Jones graduated from Fort William Collegiate Institute and later actively served in the Canadian Army from 1939-1945. He was Commanding Officer of the Essex Scottish Regiment. He was wounded in Normandy and retired in 1945 after having achieved the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

Mr. Jones served as Honorary Aide-de-Camp to Governor General of Canada Viscount Alexander and was Honorary Aide-de-Camp to two Ontario Lieutenant-Governors.

Following his brilliant military career, he settled down in Northwestern Ontario where he has made many significant contributions. Interested in timber production, Mr. Jones was Vice-President of the Dryden Paper Company Limited and served on numerous boards of various paper and related industrial companies throughout Northwestern Ontario and elsewhere. A keen observer and critic of environmental issues, he has given freely of his expertise and time during his productive life. He has served as Mayor of Dryden, Ontario and has been a valued member of the Board of Governors of Lakehead University.

His family includes two children, Dr. M.V. Jones of Kelowna, B.C., and Miss Elizabeth J. Cochran Jones, a dietician in Fredericton, N.B.

O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The true north strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee,
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada! We stand on guard for thee.
