HARLEY PARKER FEATURE FILM ON UKRAINE

□ A non-political documentary film entitled "The Ukraine Today" will be shown in the Lakehead University Centre Theatre on Saturday and Sunday, December 13 and 14.

Sponsored by the University's Ukrainian Club, the one and one-half hour long colour film will be shown twice each night at 7 p.m. and 8:45 p.m. Admission prices are $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students.

Mr. G. E. Sage, a Calgary film producer made "The Ukraine Today" in Oct. 1968 after he had spent four years applying to the Soviet government for permission for the project. He found the restrictions imposed on him by the government were surprisingly few once the initial red tape had been cleared away.

The film was received with great success during its first Canadian tour in the spring of this year and Mr. Sage is looking forward to premier showings in many American cities in the near future.

Mr. Sage graduated with a B.P.A. degree from the Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara, California. He has had many years of production experience in Canada.

□ An A.M.S. Town Hall Meeting will be held Monday, Dec. 8th at 1:30 p.m. in the Theatre. AMS Executive and Council will be available to answer questions and receive comments, ideas and suggestions. Everyone is welcome to attend.

in its publication processes in Britain.

Film for the printing of the book was intercepted by thieves enroute from North America to Britain. The thief, however was only interested in mail contained in the mailbag and burned the film.

The London Publisher now hopes to have "Counterblast" in the shops in February. The book is designed to deal with radical new developments in the human environment by means of such techniques as works set out in circles and visible only if the page is held at eye level. An intricate production process is required on the book.

L. U. BOOKSTORE

SERVICE REPORT

□ New quarters in the University Centre Building has given the Lakehead University Bookstore three times the space it had in the former building just off Oliver Road.

"In fact", said Bookstore Manager Day Laban, "our new stockroom alone contains the same space as the entire old Bookstore!"

The extra space has enabled Mrs. Laban to expand her collection of hard and soft cover books, crested glassware, and various classroom supplies such as lab coats, drawing paper and pens. In addition, the Bookstore now features a record bar with music for every taste. "If the record you want, be it rock, pop, jazz, classical, folk or country, is not in stock you may order it through our catalogue at our unusually low prices," Mrs. Laban remarked.

Students, faculty and staff should note that the 5% refund is now in affect on any Bookstore receipt dated after June 1, 1969. The rebate will continue until the end of December. A second 5% refund will be held in April 1970 for anyone who misses the first.

Regular Bookstore hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday thru Friday inclusive.

It is the function of the Bookstore to provide the best possible service to students, faculty and staff of Lakehead University. All textbooks pertaining to the courses taught at Lakehead University are ordered by the members of Faculty through the University Bookstore. At the end of each academic year, the Lakehead University Bookstore will buy back at one half the original price such textbooks as will be used again by the instructors in the ensuing academic year. Time of buy-back will be announced. Consequently, a limited quantity of used textbooks in some subjects are available at the Bookstore during Registration.

Specialty books, current best sellers and other books may be ordered from the Bookstore catalogue if they are not already in stock.

Bookstore policy as it pertains to items stocked, determination of prices, etc. is reviewed regularly by the Bookstore Committee, consisting of the Deans of all Faculties, three members of Faculty, three AMS student representatives, the Comptroller and the Bookstore manager.

Personal book and record orders are welcomed by the University Bookstore at any time except during the Fall Registration rush.

Your Lakehead University Bookstore welcomes your suggestions!
