Registrar Donald E. Ayre today announced that an honors English student, Owen E. Marks, will receive the 1969 Governor-General's Medal at Lakehead University's fifth Convocation for the Conferring of Degrees and Diplomas on Saturday, May 31. The award is given to the highest-ranking student in the fourth year of an Honor's Program for the Bachelor's Degree.

Mr. Marks is the son of Mr. & Mrs. George Marks, 758 Ernestine Avenue, Fort William and is a graduate of Fort William Collegiate Institute.

During his four years at Lakehead, Mr. Marks provided leadership for a number of student activities and organizations. He was co-editor of the university student newspaper "The Argus" in 1966-67 and remained a frequent contributor in the following years. In 1968 he was chairman of a seminar "The Just Society: Native and Eskimo's plight. He was also a representative of the Arts Faculty on the Student Council the same year. He has been a member of the University Committee and a Canadian Union of Students (CUS) delegate for the past two years. Mr. Marks received the Circle K Scholarship, a Paterson Bursary and a Lakehead University Continuation Scholarship in 1967 and the IBM Thomas J. Watson Memorial Bursary and Circle K Scholarship in 1968.

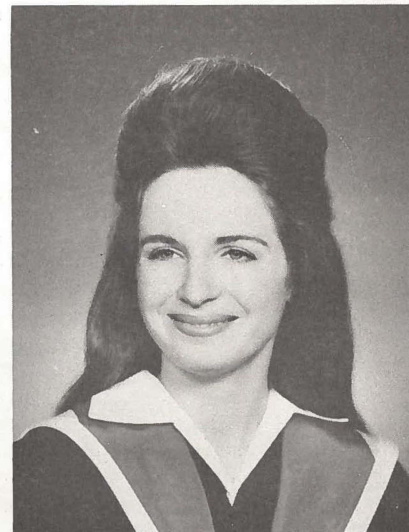

The Lieutenant-Governor's Medal, awarded annually to the highest ranking student in the graduating class of the General Degree Program, will be presented to Colleen Mahoney, a French major, who resides at 625 Oliver Road in Port Arthur. Miss Mahoney previously won a Lakehead University Entrance Scholarship and an anonymous bursary in 1967 and the Beta Sigma Phi Xi Apsilon Chapter Bursary in 1968. She is a graduate of Port Arthur Collegiate Institute.

The Chancellor's Medal, for the highest ranking part-time student in either the General or Honors Degree programs, has been awarded to Mrs. Eleanor J. Miller, 154 Harrison Street, Port Arthur. Mrs. Miller is the wife of Dr. T. B. Miller, Chairman of Lakehead University's History Department. She majored in Philosophy and English and will receive her General B. A. degree at Convocation.

The Science Medal for the highest ranking student in the Faculty of Science has been awarded to Douglas J. R. McKessock, an Honor's Mathematics student. He and his wife Carol reside at 123 Martha Street, Port Arthur. A graduate of Fort William Collegiate Institute, Mr. McKessock also received the 1968 Atkinson Charitable Foundation Bursary.

In addition to the medal winners, book prizes will be awarded to another five students. The books are awarded to the highest ranking students at the undergraduate level in French. The "Prix du Consul General de France à Toronto" will be given to Paula T. Pehkonen. The "Prix de l'Attaché Cultural de France à Toronto" will be awarded to Michael Scott Sidorski.

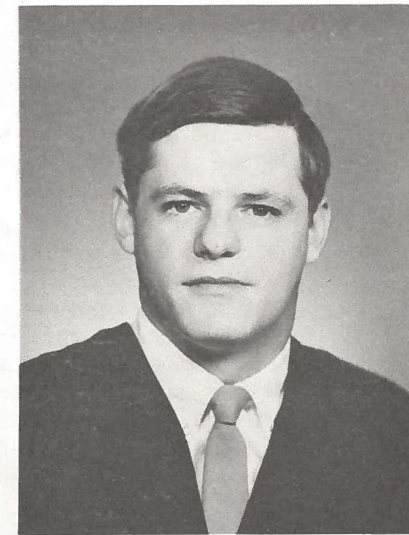

The "Prizes of the Ambassador of Switzerland to Canada", awarded to graduating students with the highest standing in the French, Italian and German languages respectively will go to Patricia Mary Connor, Italian, Austra Gruntmanis, German and Pierina A. Romanello, French.

CONVOCATION SPEAKER
FORMER UBC PRESIDENT

☐ This year's Lakehead University convocation speaker, Dr. J. B. Macdonald, D.D.S., M.S., Ph.D., F.A.C.O., A.M., L.L.D., F.I.C.D., D.Sc. is a dentist and bacteriologist turned administrator who retains a lively interest in his original area of specialization, the health sciences.

His name has recently been very much in the news with the publication of the report on The Role of the Federal Government in Support of Research in Canadian Universities, prepared for the Science Council and the Canada Council by a study team headed by Dr. Macdonald. Prior to that, he was President of the University of British Columbia for five years. His present role is as Executive Vice-Chairman of the Committee of Presidents of Universities of Ontario.

Dr. Macdonald received the degree of D.D.S. with honors from the University of Toronto in 1942, his M.S. in bacteriology at the University of Illinois in 1948, followed by his Ph.D. in the same field from Columbia University in 1953. He holds honorary degrees from Harvard University, The University of Manitoba, Simon Fraser University and The University of British Columbia.

Beginning as a Lecturer in Preventive Dentistry at the University of Toronto in 1942, combining this with private dental practice, Dr. Macdonald was later Assistant, then Associate, then full Professor of Bacteriology at the same University. He later moved to Harvard where in 1956 he became Professor of Microbiology at the Harvard School of Dental Medicine, becoming Director of Post-doctoral Studies at the School four years later.

Among the many health-science affiliations that Dr. Macdonald at present holds are the following: Consultant to the Donwood Foundation, Toronto; Chairman, Commission on Pharmaceutical Services, Canadian Pharmaceutical Association; Consultant, National Institutes of Health; Consultant, Alcoholism and Drug Addiction Research Foundation, Toronto. He was also until very recently President of the International Association for Dental Research.
