ALL CHARGES DROPPED BECAUSE TAMBLYN DIDN'T DARE COME!

All charges have been dropped against the persons arrested for trespassing at the residence of Lakehead University President W. G. Tamblyn on May 1.

The Crown Attorney was forced to withdraw the charges because Tamblyn, the complainant, failed to show up in court Nov. 10th to testify-- even though he had been subpoenaed by the Crown.

In the New Canada September Special Supplement on Lakehead U., we reported that Tamblyn was afraid to come to court, and we were right.

TAMBLYN SNUBBED HIS NOSE AT THE COURTS!

The Crown Attorney was called the night before and told that Tamblyn couldn't come to the trial because he was in Ottawa. This is an outrageous snub at the courts, and CLM Chairman Gary Perly, who was representing most of the defendants, demanded that Tamblyn be punished for contempt of court.

Provincial Court Judge Duthie agreed that it was serious that Tamblyn ignored a subpoena (which is like a court order to appear and give testimony) but said that he did not have the jurisdiction to prosecute Tamblyn and pointed out that the Crown Attorney could take action against Tamblyn.

TAMBLYN LIED!

The situation became much more serious when it was discovered after the trial that Tamblyn wasn't in Ottawa at all, but was right here in Thunder Bay.

THE CROWN ATTORNEY IS NOW CONSIDERING LAYING CRIMINAL CHARGES AGAINST W. G. TAMBLYN.

Tamblyn thought he could use the courts for his own vindictive political purposes:

- he was the complainant who caused the charges to be laid;
- then, as the boss of two of the defendants, Brian Leekley and Margie Wally, he fired them using their being arrested as justification before public opinion;
- he forced the 11 defendants, the Judge, the Crown Attorney, the police, and the witnesses to come to court 4 times and to spend a great deal of time, money, and energy preparing a case;
- then, at the very last moment, 193 days after the event, Tamblyn didn't show up and caused the charges to be dropped.

We demand that Tamblyn immediately rehire all those he fired and pay the losses of all those harmed by his actions.

IT IS TIME FOR JUSTICE AT LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY!
REHIRE THE THUNDER BAY THREE!
PAY THE LOSSES OF THOSE UNJUSTLY PROSECUTED!
