

AUTHENTIC FOOD & MUSIC FOR THREE DAY EVENT

Colorful West Indian Festival Planned

Flaming limbo dances, steel band music and authentic West Indian food will highlight three full days of activities planned by the Arts Society and Caribbean Students Association of Lakehead University.

"Côte-ci, Côte-la" (a little of this, a little of that) will take place at the university from Oct. 2-4 featuring films, dances, drama and music, all from the West Indies.

The unique entertainment will include the music of a steel band direct from Trinidad and the flaming limbo performed by Christopher Jordan and his group who performed at Expo '67 and the World Festival of Arts in London. A West Indian supper will be prepared by a fully trained West Indian chef.

Mathew Rancharran, the High Commissioner of Trinidad and Tobago will address the students. Discussion groups led by West Indian students will follow the formal lecture.

BIOLOGISTS TO GATHER AT WEEKEND CONFERENCE

The sixth annual Lake Superior Biological Conference will be held at Lakehead University for the first time on Friday and Saturday, September 26 and 27.

An estimated 100 biologists from Canadian and American universities and government agencies in the Lake Superior region are expected to participate in the conference. Chairman for the two-day event will be Dr. George Ozburn, Assistant Professor of Biology, Lakehead University.

The public is invited to attend the first session of the conference on Friday at 8 p.m. in the University Centre Auditorium. It will feature an illustrated lecture by Dr. Michael L. Wolf entitled "Wolf-Moose Relationships on Isle Royale". Dr. Wolf is a biologist from Purdue University, and has spent three years in ecological research on Isle Royale.

The Saturday session will begin at 9 a.m. in Room 124 of the Centennial Building. (Mr. J. Badalich, Director of the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency will give a talk entitled "Environmental Problems of Lake Superior") followed by Dr. James Talbot, Associate Professor of Geology at Lakehead University who will speak on "Continental Drift".

Dr. J. Tibbles, of the Sea Lamprey Control Unit at Sault Ste. Marie will give the third talk of the morning entitled "Sea Lamprey Control in the Great Lakes".

The afternoon session will consist of a talk by Professor Douglas Lindsay of the Department of Biology, Lakehead University on "Distribution of Arctic-Alpine Disjuncts on the Rocky Shores of Lake Superior". Professor Lindsay will be followed by Dr. G. Howse of the Forest Research Laboratory, Sault Ste. Marie, who will speak on "Control of Spruce Budworm in Northwestern Ontario".

Happiness is a new book during the first week of classes

The impressive new residence and student cafeterias are open but Food Services Manager Ed Lawrence hastens to point out that they are still far from fully operative. Construction is still continuing behind the kitchen doors and he estimates that the cafeteria will not be operating at full capacity for three weeks or longer, depending on the present Glaziers strike. Meanwhile he asks for patience.

CAMPUS NOTES

During the summer months, discussions have been held by Dean of Arts, Prof. Tim Ryan, with representatives of the Labor Unions in the Lakehead and district with the object of establishing an educational program designed to provide labor leaders and potential leaders with a working perspective of the community in which organized labor plays a significant role.

It is anticipated that the subjects will include economics, history, government, law and sociology. The program will be patterned on the well known Labor College at McGill University and a similar program presented at The University of Manitoba by the Department of Management Studies of which Dean Ryan was Chairman for six years.

Lakehead University will host the annual Ontario University Registrars' Conference on Oct. 24 and 25.

Delegates to the conference include registrars and admissions officers from each university in the province in addition to members of the Ontario Dept. of Education and Dept. of University Affairs.

Two featured speakers during the conference will be Dr. J. B. Macdonald, Executive Vice-Chairman of the Committee of Presidents of the Universities of Ontario and Dr. D. T. Wright, Chairman of the Committee on University Affairs.

J. M. Franklin, a newly-appointed Assistant Professor of Geology, has been appointed Tour-Guide Coordinator of the Thunder Bay district for the 1972 International Geological Congress in Montreal. Together with Dr. Joliffe of Queen's University, he will organize a seven-day field trip of Northwestern Ontario to display the geology of the area to geologists from many parts of the world.
