To Students in the Indigenous Language Teacher Diploma in July 2017:

This letter is an important notice of changes to the Indigenous Language Teacher Diploma (ILTD), formerly the Native Language Teacher's Certification (NLTC) program at Lakehead University. The ILTD program, at the Faculty of Education, began implementing these changes in September 2015. These changes reflect the Ontario College of Teacher's (OCT) accreditation requirements.

Formerly, ILTD program students, upon successfully completing all courses over 3 summers, including the practicum (40 days practice teaching), were recommended to the Ontario College of Teachers for a Restricted Certificate of Qualification and Registration. However, most of our ILTD graduates return for a 4th summer and, upon successful completion of all the required courses, are awarded a Native as a Second Language Diploma.

As of July 2016, the minimum time to complete the ILTD program has been increased to just over 3 years, including four consecutive summers (four weeks in July), and there are additional coursework and practice teaching requirements that must be completed during the intervening years. A program chart is enclosed with this letter.

The ILTD program starts in July of each year. Concentrated coursework takes place over 4 weeks in July, in each of the 4 successive summers. An additional online course (worth 0.5 FCE) must also be completed between September and April each year. These courses are shown as EDUC 2330, EDUC 2430 and EDUC 3330 on the program chart.

Students must also complete practicum between September and June each year. In the first year they must complete 10 days of practicum; in the second year they must complete 20 days; and in the third year they must complete 50 days. Students will arrange their own practicum experiences, usually in their home community, with the assistance of the Program Coordinator. Practica must conform to the requirements of the Ontario College of Teachers. Practicum shows as EDUC 1311, EDUC 2111 and EDUC 3111 on the program chart (you must be registered in the appropriate practicum course for the practicum to count). Students will participate in EDUC 1599 during Summer 2, 3 and 4. This course utilizes students' own experiences and reflection on their practicum to foster a reflective and inquiring and thoughtful practice.

When students successfully complete all courses for Summer 1 and Practicum 1 (10 days of student teaching), they will be recommended to the Ontario College of Teachers for a Transitional Certificate.

Once all the ILTD required coursework and practicum are successfully completed, the graduating students may attend the Lakehead University convocation in Thunder Bay to receive their diplomas. Successful students will also be recommended to the Ontario College of Teachers for their final Certificate of Qualification and Registration with the College (Teaching Certificate).

If you have any questions about the ILTD program changes, please call me at 807.343.8003 or by e-mail: brscott@lakeheadu.ca
