Instructions

for

Senate, Board of Governors and Platform Party

1. ASSEMBLING AND ROBINING AREAS

SENATE MEMBERS:

Senate members are expected to bring their gowns and other academic accoutrement with them to Robing Room 'A', as indicated on the attached map of the forum. They are requested to assemble at 9:30 a.m.

The Senate members should follow the instructions given by Dean John Kerr.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS:

Robes for the members of the Board of Governors will be available in Robing Room 'B', as indicated on the attached map of the forum. They are requested to assemble at 9:30 a.m.

The Board members should follow the instructions given by Mr. D. Ayre.

PLATFORM PARTY:

The Platform Party will robe in Robing Room 'C', as indicated on the attached map of the forum. They are requested to assemble at 9:30 a.m., and will line up for the procession, in pairs, in the order of their seating arrangements on the platform.

2. PROCESSION

Dean Kerr followed by the Senate and Board members, who in turn will be followed by the Platform Party, will proceed to the front of the forum at 9:50 a.m., and will halt at point A until the last of the Faculty have commenced to enter the Convocation Hall. Dean Kerr will lead his procession down the centre aisle to where the Marshall, Dr. Hart, and the Mace bearers are standing. The Marshall will then, lead the procession to the stairs on the left-hand side of the platform, where he will step aside, in order that the Mace bearers followed by Dean Kerr, may climb the stairs, the Senate members following. The Senate members will cross the platform to the far seats and will take their places from the back far side to the front centre. PLEASE REMAIN STANDING.

The Board members will climb the stairs immediately following the Senate members and will take their places from the back corner to the front centre, all by way of the centre aisle. Special guests will follow the Board members and be seated with them. PLEASE REMAIN STANDING.

The Platform Party led by the Registrar will proceed to the platform and remain standing in front of their designated places. Dean Kerr will take his place with the Platform Party.

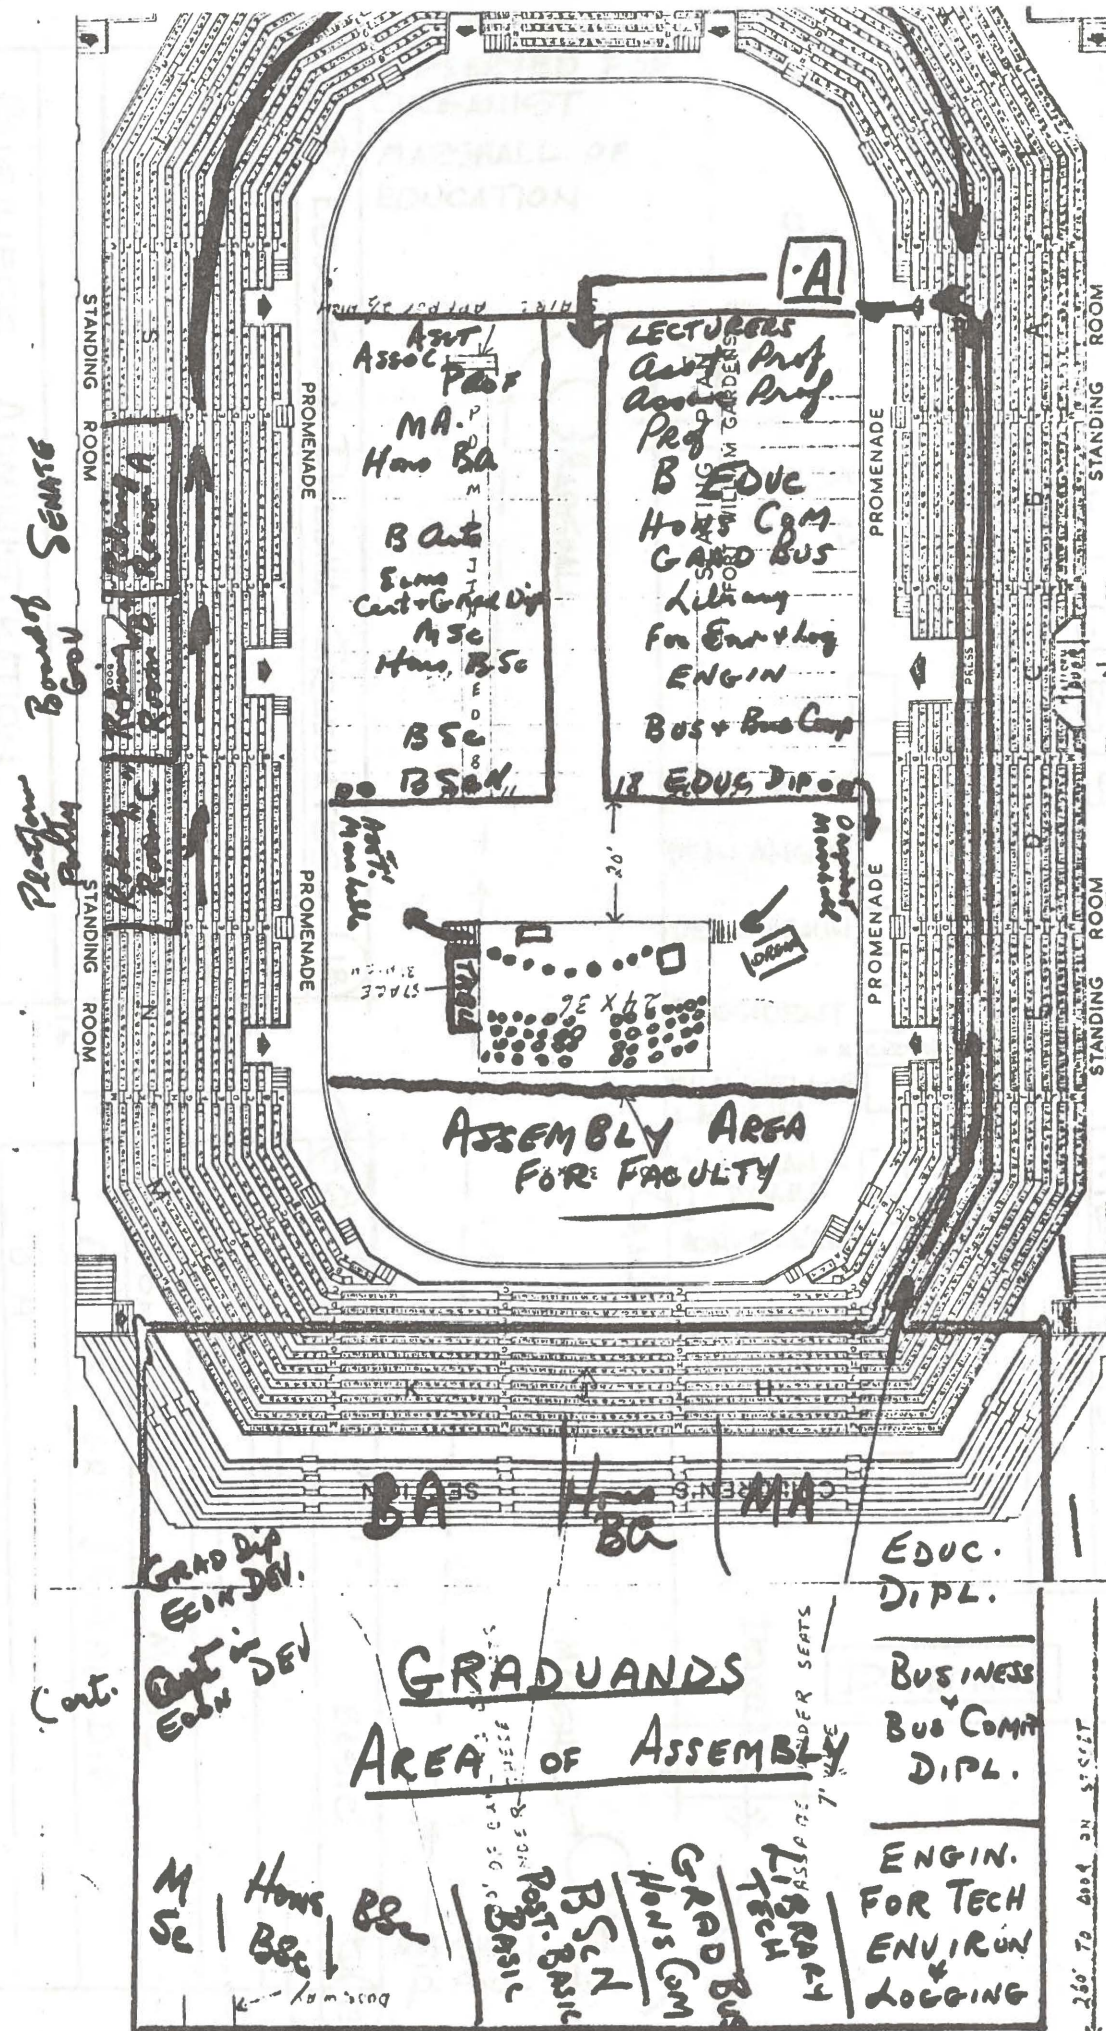

The Chancellor and the President, escorted by the Marshall, will be ushered to their places. The Marshall will then take his place with the Senate members. (If space is available the Mace bearers will also be seated with the Senate or the Board.

3. CONVOCATION

When the President and Chancellor have taken their places on the platform, "O Canada" will be played (PLEASE SING), followed by the opening of Convocation by the Chancellor, after which all will be seated. (Follow the program).

4. RECESSIONAL

At the close of the Convocation, the Platform Party will move off down the centre aisle and out of the Hall. All will stand when the Platform group, led by the Marshall, Dr. Hart bearing the Mace, commence to move out. They will be followed by the Board of Governors, the Senators, the Faculty, M.A., Honors B.A., B.A., Grad. Diploma in Economic Development, Cert. Econ. Development, M.Sc., Honors B.Sc., B.Sc., B.Sc.N., B.Ed., B.Comm., Grad. Dip. Bus. Admin., Library, Envir. For. Tech., Logging Tech., For.
