New Library Facilities

During the summer of 1971 alterations were carried out within the Library to provide better and additional seating and to improve accommodation for the increasing amount of Library material.

About two hundred extra seats have been added and informal areas of study and areas where readers may smoke have been created. Notices are posted on the second and third floors indicating where smoking is permitted.

The general book stacks on the third floor have been increased and all of the Q (Science) section has been moved to the fourth floor where a study area has also been provided.

In the Main Hall an Information Desk has been set up to assist students in the use of the catalogues.

Microfilm and microcard material together with film readers have been removed from the fourth floor and are now situated in the Reference Library on the Main Floor.

Government documents have been brought together in a separate area on the ground floor and Rare Books also have been brought together in a new Rare Books Room on the same floor. Access to the material in these collections is by enquiry to the Reference Librarian on the Main Floor.

An up-to-date Readers' Guide is available at the Circulation Desk on the Main Floor and at the Serials Desk on the Second Floor. Library users would do well to pick up one of these very useful booklets.

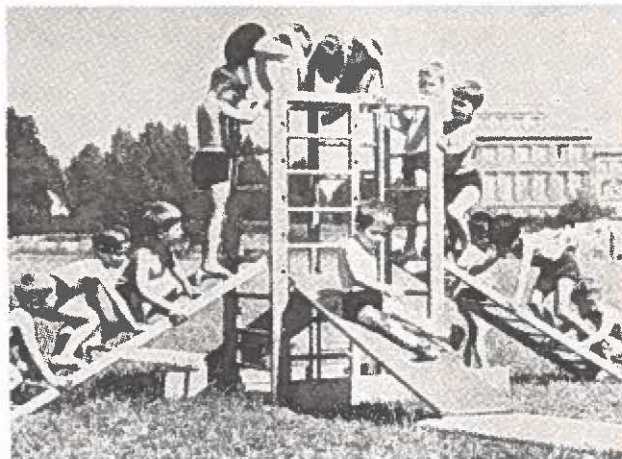

It is hoped that by 1972 when classrooms and academic offices are relocated further expansion of the Library on the ground and upper floors will be possible.

Athletic Facilities Seminar

The Northwestern Ontario Association in Physical and Health Education, in conjunction with the Faculty of Education of Lakehead University, presents a physical education facilities seminar to be held at the University from Thursday, October 14, to Saturday October 16.

The kick-off for activities in this program will be a folk dance seminar directed by Jack Geddes, in the C. J. Sanders Athletic Building gymnasium, on Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m.

According to prevailing theories of physical and health education for pre-school and public school children, emphasis is placed on the student rather than the subject matter. Activities and equipment are designed in the context of natural growth and development of younger children.

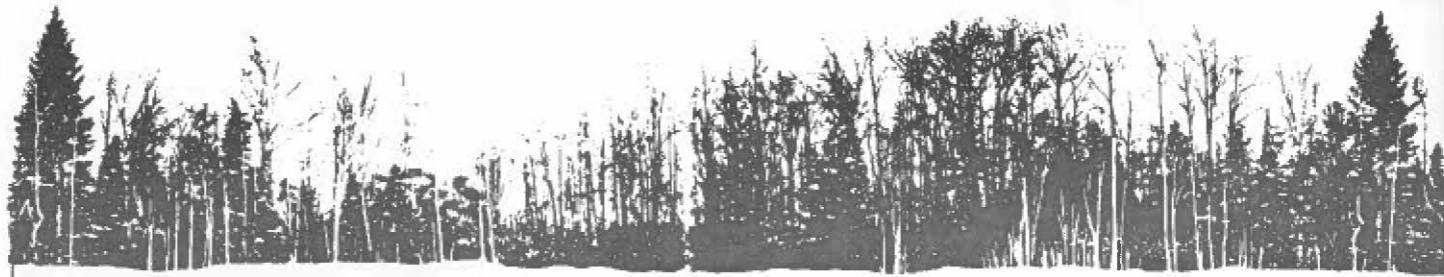

Key concepts in this approach are weight, time, space and flow. Children are encouraged to discover for themselves the effects of weight transfer on various parts of their bodies as it affects their own specific movements. Children thus become more aware of themselves and their individual abilities.

Part of this awareness is related to the speed at which separate activities are accomplished. Which movements cannot be made slowly? How does speed affect performance? Space, too, is important. Children are now encouraged to become more aware of their abilities and responsibilities in relation to other children and equipment.

Finally, this approach of self-discovery aims at helping the child reach an awareness of his movements so that he can become more in control, more graceful—thus the emphasis on the flow of movement from one exercise to another, from one piece of athletic equipment to another.

The seminar will conclude on the afternoon of Saturday, October 16, with an orienteering program for local elementary schools.

The Alumni Speak

The newly installed executive of the Lakehead University Alumni Association is looking forward to an active year. Greater representation on the University Board of Governors, and initial representation on the Senate of the University take priority among the Association's goals for the coming year.

The Association will, as in past years, be presenting at least four bursaries to deserving undergraduates with a legitimate financial need. The presentation of a mace to the University is also among the Association's plans. It is hoped that the mace, which would be used primarily during graduation ceremonies, will be constructed of materials native to Northwestern Ontario.

The publication of an Alumni Newsletter will be re-introduced this year, and at least two issues should be forthcoming during this school year.

The first annual reunion of Lakehead University alumni now living in Toronto will take place in early 1972. It is expected that this event, to be held in Toronto, will be well received; and, that it will be extended to other urban centres in future years.

The Association's capacity to carry out its plans has been enhanced by the establishment of a permanent office at Lakehead University in room UC-0003D Telephone 345-2121, Extension 732; and, by the hiring of a part-time general secretary.

Athletic Service Program

This is a reminder that registration for the Lakehead University Athletic Service Program will be held Saturday, October 9th from 11:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Faculty of Education Building; and Monday, October 11th and Wednesday, October 13th from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the Athletic Building.

UNICEF

The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund celebrates its 25th Anniversary this year. For years now, this strictly volunteer organization has depended heavily upon a Hallowe'en Collection, administered through the schools.

Across Canada last year, the Hallowe'en collection netted about $660,000 in small change. Local contributions amounted to about $5,000. According to the local UNICEF Chairman, Jerry Coffman, these figures helped contribute to a mere 10% of the needs of the world's destitute children.

The local organization is in desperate need of volunteer adult workers. What for? To carry out liaison programs with 90 local schools for the Hallowe'en collection; to help count and collect money (cars badly needed); to help at UNICEF Hallowe'en parties; and to take pictures for publicity purposes.

If you can help, call Mrs. Anne Griffith at 344-0503, or Jan Buckley at 344-5954.

Room For Passion

Dr. William S. Morris, Chairman of the Lakehead University Department of Philosophy announces that Dr. Pall Ardal, noted Icelandic philosopher, specialist in Eighteenth Century thought, visits Lakehead University this coming week.

The Eighteenth Century is usually labeled the "Age of Reason", and few care to consider beyond this inadequate definition. One reason may well be that David Hume, who once wrote that "reason not only is but ought to be the slave of the passions," has not been given enough attention. Book II of his famous Treatise on Human Nature had long been consigned to the dustbin as antiquated psychology. But, Dr. Ardal, through his book Passion and Value in Hume's Treatise, Edinburgh 1966, may well yet initiate an entire re-evaluation of the Eighteenth Century.

On Tuesday, October 12, at 9:30 a.m., in MB-1061, Dr. Ardal will deliver a lecture on "Hume and the Science of Man", which will concentrate on Hume's theories of imagination, reason, feeling and ethics.

At 8:00 p.m. of the same day, in the Upper Lecture Theatre, Dr. Ardal will speak on the topic "Why Punish"? He will concentrate on moral and social implications of punishment. This is a public lecture, all are welcome, and there will be no admission charge.

A.M.S. Business Manager

Mrs. Margaret Beach has recently accepted the position of Interim Business Manager for the Lakehead University Alma Mater Society. Mrs. Beach has become familiar with the inner workings of the A.M.S. through her role as full-time secretary over the past year.

As Interim Business Manager, she will review all proposed expenditures in conjunction with the Student Finance Committee. Her signature will be required to verify all A.M.S. spending.

Pat Flanagan, A.M.S. President, expects the Society's financial situation to become more stable through such controls. Also, future Vice-Presidents of Finance will be free to advise on financial policy, rather than to personally administer allocation of $½ million per year, as has been the case in the past.

Requests Ideas

Sean Cook, who is spear-heading an attempt to develop the Lakehead University forest, invites formal proposals and commitment from Lakehead University foresters and other interested parties.

Mr. Cook is presently awaiting a report from the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests concerning timber rights and the extent to which the forest can be developed.

He will post a meeting notice on the Forestry bulletin board when he receives the Lands and Forests' report within the next week. In the mean time, he urges interested parties to consider means of developing the forest and to contact him at "F" House, Men's Residence, Room 102.
