THUNDER BAY M.P.P. TO SPEAK AT L.U.

□ Keith Penner, Member of Parliament for the Federal constituency of Thunder Bay, will speak at Lakehead University on Tuesday, March 17.

In line with current political events, he will speak on the subject of "Canada and the Arctic Sovereignty Question." A question period will be open to the floor following the lecture. The subject matter will be to the discretion of each individual.

Mr. Penner is Chairman of the External Affairs' Sub-Committee for the Maritime Command which is presently conducting an extensive study of the Canadian Arctic Sovereignty Question. He enthusiastically accepted to lecture at the University following an invitation from Dr. P. Sarbadhikari, Associate Professor of the University's Political Science Dept.; Egon Nielsen and the Political Science students.

All Political Science students, faculty members and other interested persons are invited to attend the lecture. It will begin at 1 p.m. in the lower theatre (Rm. 028) to the rear of the Agora. An early attendance is recommended.

An informal reception will be held between 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. for Mr. Penner in the Senate Chamber (off the Agora) following the lecture. Members of the University and the public are invited to attend.

CAMPUS NOTES

□ Assistant Professor Walter Crowe, of Lakehead University's School of Business Administration, will attend a symposium on "Computers in Health in Ottawa on March 18-21. A total of 200 delegates were invited to attend the symposium which has been organized by the Canadian Hospital Association with support from the Dept. of National Health and Welfare. Papers will be presented by experts in hospital administration from many countries.

Following the symposium, Professor Crowe will represent the University's School of Business at a research conference at the University of Western Ontario, London. Delegates to the conference will consider individual and group research in the field of Administration.

□ The Lakehead University Nurse's Association will host a symposium on nursing education on Thursday, March 19 in the auditorium of the Faculty of Education Building.

The theme of the symposium will be "The Role of the Student Nurse." Mr. Gerry Isherwood, Public Relations Officer for the Thunder Bay Health Unit will be moderator for the evening. Speakers will include: Con O'Connor Director of Nursing Education at the Port Arthur General Hospital; Susan Friday, second-year student at the Lakehead Regional School of Nursing and Linda Cooper, third-year student in the Bachelor of Science of Nursing program at Lakehead University.

The symposium will begin at 7:30 p.m.

PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE MARCH 20 - 22

□ The Third Annual Psychology Conference will be held at Lakehead University on March 20-22. Its theme will be "Contemporary Problems of our Society."

This year the conference will be centered around guest speakers, panel discussions, symposia and individual paper presentations. The guest speakers will include Dr. S. G. Laverty, Professor of Psychiatry at Queen's University and Dr. R. E. Sanderson, a Psychologist from the Adult Occupational Centre, Barrie, Ontario. Other speakers and panelists will include members of the University Community and the city of Thunder Bay. Dr. K. Paul Satinder, Assistant Professor of Psychology, Lakehead University will be Chairman of the conference.

The program committee for the conference recently issued a schedule of events which commented: "There are many aspects in these psychology conferences. Primarily it aims at providing valuable experience to our students in relations to participation and organization of professional conferences. Secondly it serves as a timely occasion to all the Psychology and other interested students to know what their colleagues have been doing during the academic year in terms of research and seminar projects. Thirdly, it is an attempt to interact with the rest of the community."

Members of the University community and the general public are invited to attend the conference.

There is no admission fee. Early registration is requested for the arrangement of refreshments. Please contact Dr. K. Satinder, Chairman, Program Committee, Extension 367, Room 1066 (Main Building) for further information.
