TRI-SEMESTER SYSTEM PRAISED BY REGISTRAR

□ A report on the tri-semester system was one of the highlights of the annual meeting of the Ontario Registrar's Association Conference held for the first time at Lakehead University on October 15 and 16.

Guelph Registrar, Herbert Pettipiere, explained what the system was and how it worked to the 90 or more delegates. Guelph and Simon Fraser are the only Canadian Universities presently using the system.

Mr. Pettipiere said the system has been most beneficial at Guelph but it was not without problems. He stressed the point that the benefits to the student were the most important consideration. Not only could the students enter the university at three times during the year, January, April or September but it was also possible, although not recommended, to finish a three-year program in two years by continuing through six straight semesters. He admitted that it meant a great deal more work for the administration and required one third more faculty members because the university was operating year round. However, he felt the benefits far outweighed the problems.

He outlined the busy period between the start of exams for one semester and the start of registration for the next. Exams are held in a one week period and faculty members are expected to have the results in the Monday following the Saturday close of exams. He said this was a vital consideration and to back it up, delinquent faculty members' names are circulated to the president and deans. One week after examinations have finished registration begins for the next semester. Mr. Pettipiere admitted the inflexibility in this short change over a period and said that Guelph is presently seeking senate approval for a two-week period.

There are no supplemental examinations but a student may repeat the subject in the next semester.

The conference itself was most successful in terms of size, content and organization, a credit to the organization, a credit to the Registrar's office which acted as host.

PLAN SYMPOSIUM

□ A Symposium on Language Learning in the Lakehead will be held at the University on Nov. 14 and 15.

The Symposium will bring together language teachers at the elementary, secondary and university level, school principals and representatives of the Lakehead Board of Education, the Lakehead District Roman Catholic Separate School Board and the Ontario Department of Education.

Topics to be discussed include new methods in the teaching of modern languages and language teaching problems.

Interested persons who wish to attend the seminar may obtain application forms from the Department of Languages, Lakehead University.

New Cellist For Quartet

□ Lakehead University's Princeton String Quartet is temporarily a trio!

Two members of the university's "Quartet-in-residence", cellist Avron Coleman and violist Robert Behrendt, retired from the group last summer and to date, only Mr. Coleman's chair has been filled. The new member is an outstanding cellist, Albin Berky.

Albin Berky acquired his musical education at the Conservatory and at the Master School of Music in Prague, in the class of the noted musician Professor Zelenka. He has worked as concertmaster in the Prague Radio Orchestra and in recent years with the Radio Berlin.

Right from the beginning of his artistic activity. Albin Berky has dedicated himself to solo and chamber orchestra playing. He has made numerous European tours, playing as soloist with famous orchestras such as the Leningrad and Moscow Philharmony, the Swiss Chamber Orchestra and other Philharmonic Orchestras.

Mr. Berky has taught for many years at the Conservatory and the University of Musical Art in Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, and during 1966-68 as a

UNDERGROUND MOVIES

□ The AMS will feature four underground films on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 22 and 23 in the University Centre Auditorium. There will be two showings: at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. each evening.

WHOLLY COMMUNION - PETER WHITEHEAD - New York Film Festival '67

"Directed, produced and photographed and edited by Peter Whitehead. Here, preserved for the curious and the social historian is the record of that celebrated meeting of poets (including Ginsberg, Ferlinghetti, and Corso) who packed the Royal Albert Hall in June of '65. Wholly Communion is not a document so much as a piece of cinema verite as it penetrates through the 'event' to feelings and hopes, as in the spirited exchanges

HAIR TODAY

□ "Hair" opened today at Lakehead University.

Sorry to disappoint theatre-goers, but "Hair" isn't the current hit Broadway play. It's the name of a beauty salon in the University's new mall.

Dates for the openings of the other three shops - McGolrick's Men's Wear, Central News Co., Ltd. and a barber shop - in addition to the Bank of Commerce will be announced as they are completed.

between the chairman (Alexander Trocchi) and a heckling spectator and the poet Harry Fainlight, reading his brilliant and nightmarish anti-epic of LSD visions, THE SPIDER."

SON OF DADA - ROBERT PRESTON - London Film Festival; New York Film Festival

"SON OF DADA, by Preston, is one of the foremost examples of film-collage. Preston's image-vocabulary is extensive and rich in contract. The film proceeds from theme to theme with an amazing unity of structure. It starts and concludes with a painting of President Johnson."

LSD WALL - JOHN HAWKINS

"Ostensibly through the use of LSD, a men's room wall comes alive with clay forms. A most superb stop-motion animation film."

RELATIVITY - ED EMSHWILLER - New York Film Festival

"In RELATIVITY we are presented with one of the cornerstones in the comprehension of what 'new cinema' is all about. This film is as subtle as it is complete. Emshwiller utilizes surrealism and symbolism without being trapped within their limitations. He captures some of the most sensitive and lyrical footage of the female anatomy ever exposed on film. There is a logic to this film; an economy and a control."
