Lakehead University

Convocation 2002

Saturday, May 25, 2002 marks Lakehead University's thirty eighth convocation for the conferring of degrees and diplomas. The word "convocation" means "calling together". It is a ceremonial meeting of the entire university community. On Convocation Day university members and their guests wear special attire based on a tradition that dates back as long as seven centuries ago. The academic costume, also referred to as academic "dress" or "regalia", had its origins in the ancient European universities. The regalia was devised to distinguish academic persons such as doctors, licentiates, masters and bachelors. In the middle ages they were worn as everyday attire. Gowns were a necessity because of unheated buildings and hoods were needed to cover the heads of medieval scholars.

There are many variations of academic dress. The hood, gown and in some cases the special hat (mortarboard) worn by an individual is determined by the style of the university where he or she received a degree. The colourful gowns and hoods of universities from across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom and several other nations of the world are worn here today.

The academic dress chosen by Lakehead University is fashioned after that of the University of Oxford, the oldest English-speaking university in the world. The robes worn by the officers of the university - the Chancellor, who presides at convocation, the President (who is also the Vice-Chancellor) and the Chair of the Board of Governors - are all of the Oxford cut and trim. Each has its own distinctive colour. The colourful gowns worn by the individuals who are receiving honorary degrees are of the same design as are the black gowns worn by the student candidates. The ritual at convocation reflects the medieval custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol of a degree. Students who have met the university's academic requirements (three, four, five or six years of study in particular subjects) wear the symbol of their status as holders of a Lakehead University degree. Lakehead University's bachelor's and master's degree hoods are distinguished by a one or two inch colour border which indicates the degree acquired eg. white for Arts, drab for Commerce, blue for Education, burgundy for Nursing, etc. Lakehead's first PhD degree was conferred in 1998.

In addition to "earned" degrees, the university confers "honorary" degrees which symbolize the highest honour that can be conferred on an individual by the university. An honorary degree may be awarded in recognition of scholarly or creative attainments or distinguished public service to the country or region. They go to individuals who have been designated by the University's Senate, its senior academic governing body, as deserving special honour. At convocation the degree is awarded honoris causa, or "in the cause of honour". A hood is also given to the recipient and it may be worn to any academic affair. Recipients of these degrees become honorary alumni of the University and they may affix, after their names, the abbreviation of the degree. Two honorary degrees, the Doctor of Letters and the Doctor of Laws will be conferred in today's ceremonies.

The Board of Governors of the university also recognizes individuals who have contributed to the growth, development, welfare and well-being of Northwestern Ontario and of Lakehead University. This is done by the conferring of the title Fellow of the University. You will recognize university Fellows by their familiar blue gown with white velvet epitoge or scarf.

During the processional and the recessional the Marshal for convocation carries the Mace, a silver wand which is a traditional symbol of the university's authority. This mace was given to the university by the Alumni Association in 1971. It bears the university's motto Ad augusta per angusta, Achievement through Effort.

Today the university community celebrates its thirty eighth convocation. Its members dress in clothes which are symbolic, not functional, and go through a centuries old ritual for the conferment of degrees and diplomas. We thank you for being present to share this special event with us.

Photographs - Those wishing to take pictures of the graduates are most welcome to come forward to the left and right of the stage. To avoid congestion of that area, please wait until your particular graduate is ready to receive his or her degree before you come forward.

PIERRE BERTON

Journalist, Historian, Television Host, Interviewer

Pierre Berton is one of Canada's best-selling, most prolific authors whose spirited historical narratives and passionate nationalism have done much to stir up interest in Canadian history. He has published 47 books including two volumes, The National Dream and The Last Spike, which tell the story of the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway from 1871 to 1885. His book, Marching As To War, Canada's Turbulent Years 1899-1953, was published in 2001, to rave reviews.

Berton is a Companion of the Order of Canada, Past President of the Writers Union of Canada, and a member of the Canadian News Hall of Fame. He has 12 honorary degrees and numerous awards including, The Pierre Berton Award from the Canadian National History Society – an annual award for distinguished achievement in popularizing Canadian history.

Throughout his distinguished career he has worked in all branches of communications: writing revue sketches for the stage; plays for radio; and documentaries for radio, films and television.

Born in the Yukon in 1920, Pierre Berton graduated from the University of British Columbia (UBC) with a BA in 1941. His decision to go to UBC was motivated by a desire to work on the student newspaper, the Ubyssy, and to learn about journalism. He became a correspondent for Vancouver's News Herald and after graduating, took on the job of City Editor, becoming the youngest City Editor in Canada. He spent four years in the Army rising from Private to Captain/Instructor at the Royal Military College in Kingston, and after the war became a feature writer for the Vancouver Sun.

A major turning point in Pierre Berton's career came in 1947 when he moved to Toronto to join the staff of Maclean's magazine. From 1951 to 1958 he was Managing Editor of Maclean's before becoming a columnist and Associate Editor of The Toronto Star. In 1957, he became a key member of the CBC's public affairs flagship program, Close-Up, and a permanent member panelist on Front Page Challenge which ran for 39 years. In 1962, he left The Toronto Star to commence his own television show, 'The Pierre Berton Show,' which ran until 1973.

Berton holds two ACTRA awards, one for integrity and outspokenness in broadcasting and a second for public-affairs broadcasting in radio. For his writing, he has received three Governor General Awards for creative non-fiction: one for The Mysterious North (1956), a graphic description of the Canadian North, one for Klondike: The Last Great Goldrush (1958), and one for The Last Spike – The Great Railway 1881- 1885 (1971).

Other books include: Just Add Water and Stir, (1959) (which was awarded a Stephen Leacock Medal for Humour in 1960); The Secret World of Og, (1961); The Comfortable Pew, (1965); The Smug Minority, 1968; The National Dream (1970), Drifting Home, 1973; The Dionne Years — A Thirties Melodrama (1977), The Invasion of Canada 1812-1813 (1980), Flames Across the Border 1813-1814 (1981), Why We Act Like Canadians (1982), The Arctic Grail, (1988), Vimy (1986) The Great Depression 1929-1939 (1990), and My Times: Living With History 1949-1995 (1995), and Pierre Berton's Canada (1999).

Pierre Berton's latest book, Cats I've Known and Loved, will be released in November 2002 and he is currently working on a new book entitled The Joy of Writing.

Pierre Berton and his wife Janet Walker have eight children and live in Kleinberg, Ontario.

LARRY HEBERT

Utility Manager

Larry Hebert is a leader in the electrical industry in Northwestern Ontario. A graduate of Fort William Collegiate Institute, Larry completed a Bachelor of Arts in 1969 and a Business Administration Diploma in 1970 at Lakehead University. As a student, Larry played varsity basketball, was a basketball floor announcer and Sports Editor for the Argus. He completed his Masters in Business Administration at the University of Toronto in 1972, majoring in Human and Labour Relations. He returned to Lakehead University for part-time studies in Human and Labour Relations, graduating with an Honours Bachelor of Commerce Degree in 1978.

A member of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association from 1984 to 1990, Larry chaired the Fundraising Committee for three years. Larry inspired the Alumni to set a goal of raising $100,000, a new benchmark. Under Larry's enthusiastic direction, they met and exceeded that goal. Larry has also worked on the host committees for several university sports tournaments and been president of three athletic Booster Clubs. He is an investor in the new Thunderwolves Hockey Team.

As General Manager and Secretary of Thunder Bay Hydro since 1983, Larry is the longest serving manager of a large utility in Ontario. He has been at the centre of issues involving the opening of the electricity market, as president of the Ontario Electrical Utilities Safety Association from 1993 to 1994, president of the Northwest Energy Association since 1992, and a member of the executive of numerous other industry groups.

At the same time, Larry has been committed to education in human resources, as a member of the Ontario Educational Standards Committee of the Certified Human Resources Professionals, as a member of the Advisory Board to the Human Resources program at Confederation College, and as a teacher of Human Resources and Labour Relations courses at Lakehead University, Confederation College and Athabasca University. He is a long-time member of the executive of the Human Resources Association of Northwestern Ontario, including two terms as president.

A staggering list of community organizations and activities have benefited from Larry's efforts and leadership, including many involved in sports, community development, education and health. He is frequently Master of Ceremonies or Announcer at charity fundraisers.

His honours include: being named Thunder Bay's Outstanding Young Citizen for 1974; induction into the Thunder Bay Sports Hall of Fame in 1991 as a Little League coach and manager; and being named a Life Member of the Human Resources Association of Ontario.

Larry and his wife Kathy—also a graduate of Lakehead University—have two children, Kelly and Jeff.

THIRTY EIGHTH ANNUAL CONVOCATION
FOR THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

LOUISE ARBOUR
Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada

Madam Justice Louise Arbour is described as being one of Canada's most powerful jurists, a lifelong defender of the rights of the accused, an individual who goes about her work with courage and determination.

Prior to her appointment to the Supreme Court of Canada in 1999, she served as Chief Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda. In May 1999, she broke new ground by issuing history's first international warrant for the arrest of a sitting head of state – Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic – plus four political and military leaders, on charges of murder and other crimes against humanity.

Born in Montreal, Quebec, in 1947, she attended convent school and graduated from the Collège Régina Assumpta in Montreal in 1967 with her Bachelor's degree and in 1970 completed her L.L.L. with distinction from the University of Montreal. She was called to the Quebec Bar in 1971 and the Ontario Bar in 1977.

Thirteen years of academic work followed: first as Associate Professor of Law and later as Associate Dean at York University's Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto. During this period she raised three children, and wrote prolifically in both English and French on criminal procedure, human rights and civil rights. As Vice-President of the Canadian Civil Liberties Association, she campaigned for voting rights for prisoners and later served as counsel for the Association. She was appointed to the bench in 1987 as a judge of the Ontario Supreme Court and later was promoted to the Ontario Court of Appeal.

Throughout her career, Louise Arbour has demonstrated a willingness to go against the grain in defending the rights of the accused. In 1992, she co-authored a Court of Appeal decision upholding a lower court acquittal of an accused Second World War mass murderer. In 1995, she presided over an inquiry into violence at the Prison for Women in Kingston, Ontario, and made recommendations to the Solicitor-General regarding the operations of Canada's Correctional Service. In 2000, as a Supreme Court Justice, she issued a bold dissenting opinion in the case of R v. Oickle saying the Crown was wrong to use an alleged confession by an accused arsonist.

Madam Justice Louise Arbour holds 24 honorary degrees from universities and colleges in Canada, the United States, Scotland and Belgium. She is a Lifetime Member of the Association des juristes d'expression française de l'Ontario, and has received an amazing number of awards including: the Médaille de l'Université de Montréal; Achievement Award, Women's Law Association; G. Arthur Martin Award, Criminal Lawyers' Association; Medal of Honour, International Association of Prosecutors, and most recently the McGill Centre for Research and Teaching on Women Person of the Year Award.

JOSEPH RONALD BARATTA 1938-2001

Educator

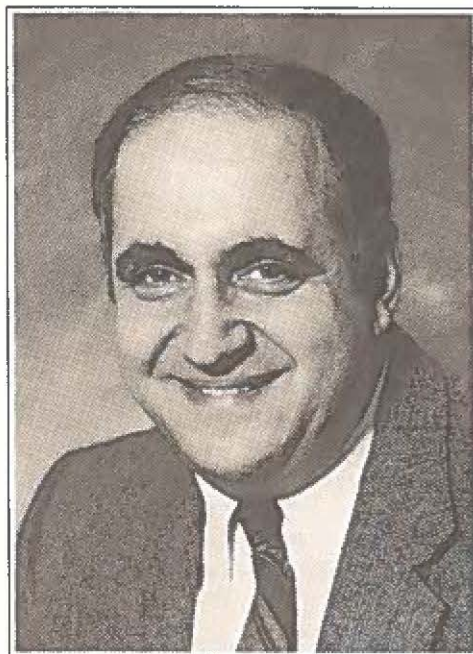

Joe Baratta felt he was a lucky man. He was born in the south end of Port Arthur at a time when prospects for a poor boy with an Italian name were not good. As a student at Port Arthur Collegiate Institute, he demonstrated not only excellence in football and hockey, but also a compassionate nature and love for life. Joe aspired to a career in teaching, but could not afford to attend university. Fortunately, under a program provided through Lakehead Teachers College and Lakehead University's emerging Faculty of Education in the early 1960s, Joe was able to receive professional training while he worked as a probationary teacher. He went on to complete a B.A. (1970), B.Ed. (1975) and M.Ed. (1980) at Lakehead University, all as a part-time student.

With his exceptional interpersonal and organizational skills, Joe soon moved into leadership roles in the Port Arthur Roman Catholic Separate School Board, and later the Lakehead District Roman Catholic Separate School Board. From 1966 to 1996, Joe served as principal of six elementary schools, taking time out to help launch the Board's first junior high school, St. Ignatius, as its inaugural vice principal. He finished his career as principal of Corpus Christi School in 1996, when he retired for health reasons.

In appreciation of the opportunities afforded to him by Lakehead University, Joe began volunteering as a Marshall at Convocation in the early 1980s. By the mid-1980s, he had been elected to the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association, serving as President from 1990 to 1992. Under his leadership, the Alumni Association made a significant contribution toward the purchase of the Avila Centre, which became the new home of the Alumni Association and Alumni Relations Office. He also served two terms on the Board of Governors and as Chair of the Italian Studies Committee.

Joe honoured his heritage as a proud lifelong member of the Italian Society of Port Arthur. Other community organizations which gained from Joe's active involvement included the Fort William Redskins Quarterback Club, Rotary Club, Knights of Columbus, CAA Board of Directors, Ontario English Catholic Teachers Association and charities of the Gran Sasso Club. In 1983, he was inducted into the Thunder Bay Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the 1958 Fort William Redskins, Canadian Intermediate Football Champions.

Joe said that his volunteer work for Lakehead University was his way of giving something back to an institution that had given so much to him. Lakehead University is fortunate to have had an alumnus like Joe. He died in August, 2001, leaving his wife, Gloria, and three children. The Alumni Association has established the Joseph R. Baratta Memorial Bursary in Education in his honour.
